

ABOUT WGBH

WGBH connects New England, the nation and the world with educationally rich, entertaining, thought-provoking, original content that millions of people trust—every day.

WGBH IS...

- The #1 producer of content for PBS on television, the Web, and mobile.
- A major supplier of programming for public radio nationwide, on air and online.
- Public broadcasting for New England—with six Boston-area TV channels (WGBH 2, WGBX 44, World, Create, WGBH Kids, and Boston Kids & Family); four WGBY TV channels in Springfield; three radio services (89.7 WGBH, Boston's Local NPR; 99.5 WCRB Classical; and WCAI Cape and Islands NPR® Station); and wgbh.org.
- A national TV and Web service—our World Channel offers the best of PBS news and nonfiction programming along with original series showcasing fresh perspectives and unique voices. This rapidly expanding service is carried by 150 stations, reaching 35 million viewers.
- A pioneer in educational multimedia for the nation (serving 1.9 million people), in Massachusetts (as the media partner to the Commonwealth's early childhood and education agencies), and in Boston (operating the city's Kids & Family TV channel).
- The creator of innovative media access technologies and services that enfranchise the 36 million Americans with hearing or vision loss and ensure that students with disabilities have equal access to educational resources and high-stakes assessment tests.
- A "town square" where 83,000 visitors came through our doors in 2016 for screenings, performances, and tours, or attended WGBH-sponsored events in our community.

IT ALL HAPPENS THANKS TO YOU.
