December 8, 2011 (Hoboken, NJ) – John Wiley and Sons (NYSE: JWA and JWB), a global provider of content and workflow solutions in areas of scientific, technical, medical and scholarly research; professional and personal development; and education today announced results for the second quarter of fiscal year 2012:

- Revenue growth of 1% including FX (-0.4% excluding foreign exchange, or “FX”)
- Revenue growth by segment, including FX: STMS +3%, P/T -1% and Education flat
- Revenue growth by segment, excluding FX: STMS +1%, P/T -2% and Education -1%
- Adjusted EPS fell 6% to $0.83 (both including and excluding FX). Top line results and higher technology and facility costs offset improved gross margins and lower interest expense.
- Shared Services and Administrative Costs excluding FX, were up 12% to $98 million, driven mostly by technology spending to support investments in digital products and infrastructure and facility costs related to consolidation of operations.
- Outlook: Lowering FY12 revenue guidance from mid to low single digit growth excluding FX and reaffirming EPS guidance in a range from $3.15 to $3.20 including the effect of FX and excluding the unusual tax benefits with some potential upside coming from foreign exchange.
- Share Repurchases: Wiley repurchased 600,000 shares this quarter at a cost of $28 million. The Company has 3.4 million authorized shares remaining in its program.
- Credit Facility: In November, the Company signed a new bank agreement for a $700 million five-year senior revolving credit facility, which will be used to pay down the Company’s prior credit facilities and meet future seasonal operating cash requirements. Net Debt (long term debt less cash and cash equivalents) over the last twelve months was reduced by $117 million to $428 million.

Year-to-Date Results

- Revenue growth of 3% including FX (flat excluding FX)
- Revenue growth by segment, including FX: STMS +6%, P/T -0.3% and Education -1%
- Revenue growth by segment, excluding FX: STMS +2%, P/T -2% and Education -3%
- Adjusted EPS fell 2% to $1.51, or 6% excluding FX. The decline is due to top line results and higher technology and facility costs. Adjusted EPS excludes a $0.14 and $0.07 per share deferred tax benefit in fiscal year 2012 and 2011, respectively. The tax benefit was derived from two consecutive legislative reductions in the United Kingdom corporate income tax rates. The benefits had no current cash tax impact.
- GAAP EPS grew 3% to $1.65, but was flat excluding FX. GAAP EPS includes the above deferred tax benefit.

Management Commentary

“The slowdown in education continued to weigh on overall results,” said Stephen Smith, President and CEO. “A year-to-date decline in for-profit enrollments and the impact of rental ordering patterns, which benefited last year’s numbers, have had a larger than expected impact on the business. We are encouraged by the continued migration to non-traditional and digital products, which accounted for 28% of overall global education revenue through the first half of the year.”

Mr. Smith continued: “STMS journals continue to perform well, and while it is very early in the process, our calendar year 2012 journal renewals are proceeding as expected.”

Said Mr. Smith: “P/T continues to perform as expected in this cautionary retail environment. We are pleased to see an end to the Borders liquidation sale that adversely impacted sales at other retailers through much of the first half of the fiscal year. The transition to eBooks is accelerating and gross margins showed improvement this quarter. We continue to maintain or improve market share in the areas we serve.”

“Looking ahead, we are focused on containing or reducing costs and improving overall efficiencies to help offset our significant technology investments and infrastructure,” said Mr. Smith. “We have begun to launch content-enabled services such as the online job network in STMS, and are deploying innovative business models like the recently announced institutional agreement with Indiana University. We also continue to see gross margin accretion in each of the three businesses.”

Outlook

Mr. Smith concluded: “Based on first half results and challenging market conditions impacting principally our Higher Education business, we are lowering our full year revenue guidance from mid-single digit to low-single-digit growth, excluding FX. We are reiterating our EPS guidance of $3.15 to $3.20, including FX and excluding the unusual tax benefit with some potential upside coming from foreign exchange.”

Foreign Exchange

Any references to “currency neutral”, “excluding foreign exchange (FX)” and “performance basis” exclude the effect of foreign exchange transactions and translation. The weighted average foreign exchange translation rates reflected in Wiley’s income statement during fiscal year 2011 were approximately 1.56 Sterling and 1.33 Euro.

SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, MEDICAL AND SCHOLARLY (STMS)

- Second quarter revenue +3%, or +1% excluding FX
- Second quarter contribution to profit +4%, or +2% excluding FX
- Journal license subscription renewals proceeding as expected; showing moderate growth over prior year

STMS revenue for the quarter was up 3% to $251 million, or 1% excluding foreign exchange. Journal subscription and reprint growth offset a decline in book sales and other publishing income. Direct contribution to profit for the quarter grew 4% to $107 million, or 2% excluding foreign exchange due to top line growth and gross margin improvement.

Society Partnerships

- 6 new society journals were signed in the quarter with combined annual revenue of $3 million; 20 new journals signed in the first six months
- 10 renewals/extensions were signed with $11 million in combined annual revenue; 46 journals renewed in the first six months
- 4 journals lost in the quarter and year-to-date ($560K in combined annual revenue)

- Second quarter revenue fell 1%, or 2% excluding FX
- eBook revenue grew 145% for the quarter to $9 million, or 8% of P/T revenue overall
- Second quarter gross margin grew from 61.2% to 63.3% due to digital migration and product mix

P/T revenue fell 1% to $112 million, or 2% excluding FX primarily due to softness in the consumer line, primarily cooking and travel. The decline was a result of Borders' liquidation sales (completed in mid-September) combined with the soft global economy. Business and Technology categories performed well due to new titles, strong backlist sales and ebooks.

Direct contribution to profit grew 6% to $31 million, or 5% excluding foreign exchange, reflecting top line results, higher gross margins from digital products and cost control.

- Business up 3% to $36 million, with solid growth in digital sales

- Architecture fell 4% to $7 million
- Psychology fell 8% to $3 million

GLOBAL EDUCATION

- Second quarter revenue flat, or down 1% excluding FX
- Second quarter contribution flat, or down 1% excluding FX
- Non-traditional & digital revenue was up 10% to $27 million, and now accounts for 32% of Education revenue vs. 29% in the prior year.
- Digital revenue was 17% of Global Education revenue in the quarter.

Second quarter Education revenue was essentially flat at $84 million, or down 1% excluding FX. The results were attributed to lower enrollments in the for-profit segment, prior year rental stock build-up and higher sales returns. Non-traditional and digital revenue, which includes WileyPLUS, eBooks, digital content sold directly to institutions, binder editions and custom publishing, was up 10% to $27 million and accounted for 32% of total Education revenue. Flat performance in the US and a decline in EMEA offset modest gains in Asia-Pacific.

Direct contribution to profit was flat at $32 million, or fell 1% excluding FX. Top line results and higher direct operating costs offset higher gross profit.

Global Revenue

- Americas was flat at $65 million
- EMEA fell 6% to $7 million
- Asia-Pacific grew 7% to $12 million

Digital Revenue/Initiatives

- WileyPLUS revenue was down 6% to $10 million for the quarter

Other Corporate Items:

The United Kingdom, the United States and Canada have imposed new sanctions following a November 8, 2011 United Nations report targeting Iran, including restrictions on financial transactions; business relationships; and prohibitions on direct and indirect trading with listed “designated persons”. The European Union has also signaled further extension of its existing sanctions regime. The Company is currently assessing its business relationship and transactions with Iran to ensure compliance with the regulations. As of October 31, 2011 the Company had outstanding trade receivables of approximately $5 million related to prior journal and book sales before the imposition of new sanctions. It is unclear at present whether these latest sanctions will have an effect on the recovery of this outstanding receivable.

Note:

The Company provides cash flow and income measures referred to as adjusted EPS and free cash flow, which exclude certain items. Management believes the exclusion of such items provides additional information to facilitate the analysis of results. These non-GAAP measures are not intended to replace the financial results reported in accordance with GAAP.

The benefits reflect the remeasurement of the Company's expected deferred tax liability position in the UK as of April 1, 2012 and 2011, respectively, and had no current cash tax impact.

Note: The Company has provided income measures excluding certain items described above, in addition to net income determined in accordance with GAAP.
