"Are you visiting for the first time today?"

Welcome guest! We're so glad you've come to worship with us this morning. Please help us to get to know you better by filling out the green guest card on the back of the seat in front of you and dropping it in the collection basket. Or, for your convenience, you may scan the QR code and complete the guest card digitally. Thank you for taking the time to attend our service today. We hope to see you again soon!

Living & Loving Like Jesus

Volume 11 Issue 14

April 5, 2026

Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."
Acts 2:38

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“Zeal for God”

Zeal is a wonderful thing to have. This excitement and enthusiasm can be illustrated by one of its meanings: to be heated to the point of boiling. Many people are on fire about religion. The Apostle Paul said that for zeal to be of any value there are some things that must accompany it. What must we have with our zeal? What does the Bible say?

Zeal Is Essential. Paul indicates Zeal is a good thing when speaking of some people of his day. “For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God...” (Romans 10:2). Zeal was a quality attributed to Jesus when He cast the moneychangers out of the temple: “Zeal for Your house has eaten Me up” (John 2:17).

Zeal Must Have Knowledge. When Paul speaks of the zeal of Israel, he follows up by saying, “...but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness...” (Romans 10:2-3). Just being excited was not enough. They needed to know the truth. Zeal alone would not save.

Zeal Must Be Accompanied By Righteousness. Being enthusiastic, and knowing what is right, are still not enough. We must do those things. In Roman 10:3, we read of those zealous people who were “seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God.” Submission to the will of God is another essential.

We encourage you to have zeal that has both the knowledge of God's word and obedience to the truth. That is a saving combination.

(Titus 2:11-14)“For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works.”

- Paul Adams
