Welcome to Cuddy Arena, home of the Bulldogs. We are very excited about the 2006-07 winter sports seasons.

Both the men’s and women’s basketball teams earned a spot in the 2006 NCAA play-offs. The SAC coaches picked both teams number one in the pre-season polls. With nine of 10 starters returning, expectations are high for these student-athletes.

In addition, our women’s swimming team has won two conference championships in the last three years. We are hoping to build on the success of our fall seasons. The volleyball and cross country teams represented our school in NCAA post-season play. The football team tied a school record with eight wins.

We are proud of our current student-athletes. They compete on a high level, both on the playing field and in the classroom. Wingate University is sixth among NCAA Division II Academic All-America® producing schools in the 2000s. Wingate has 19 Academic All-America® honorees during this millennium.

Wingate’s 28 Academic All-America® honorees (lifetime) leads all South Atlantic Conference schools. Wingate’s 37 SAC Scholar-Athlete Award winners are the most of any school in the league.

Our student-athletes do not miss a beat on the playing field. In 2005-06, six teams (volleyball, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s and women’s basketball and softball) participated in NCAA post-season play. The softball team won a school-record 47 games!

Wingate consistently ranks among the best small colleges in the nation. This year, we are adding new masters programs in physical education and sports administration. In the spring of 2007, Wingate will award its first-ever doctor of pharmacy degrees.

I am very excited about our new 2+2 program in teacher education with South Piedmont Community College. Many outstanding future teachers will benefit from this endeavor as will the public school students in our region. In addition, Wingate University Metro College began a unique transfer partnership in January 2006 with CPCC Levine Campus in Matthews.

This past summer, we were awarded a $900,000 challenge grant from one of the nation’s largest and most prestigious foundations. Among many things, the Kresge Foundation grant will fund a $2.9 million 72-bed student housing complex to be finished in 2007. It will also enable the University to broaden its base of support for future programs.

There are many exciting opportunities at Wingate University. In addition to our full athletic calendars, the 2006-07 performance series will include many fun-filled evenings for all of us. Come back to visit us often.

Dr. Jerry McGee

Dr. McGee recently began his 15th year as President of Wingate University. He is a graduate of three universities and holds the doctor of education degree. He has enjoyed much success during a 30-year career in higher education, securing well over $150 million in gifts and grants for scholarships, endowment and campus development. His service as vice president of Gardner-Webb University, Meredith College and Furman University has prepared him well for his current position as President of Wingate University. Under his visionary leadership, Wingate University has been recognized as one of the best small liberal arts colleges in the South and the premier small private university in North Carolina.

During the summer of 2006, Dr. McGee was inducted into the South Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame. Dr. McGee has served on the NCAA President’s Council and as the National Chairman of the Football Issues Committee for Division II. He has also been a member of the NCAA Sports Wagering Task Force. Recently he was awarded North Carolina’s highest civilian award – the Order of the Long Leaf Pine.

Dr. McGee has officiated over 340 college football games over the past 30 years and has been routinely selected for post-season assignments including the Florida Citrus Bowl twice, the Orange Bowl, the Gator Bowl twice, the Army/Navy game twice, the Liberty Bowl, the Peach Bowl, the Snow Bowl, the Fiesta Bowl, the Motor City Bowl, the Houston Bowl, the Las Vegas Bowl, the Golden Isle Bowl, the Holiday Bowl and the Rose Bowl. He has been selected twice to officiate games that determined the national championship. Last year, he was selected to officiate the inaugural Atlantic Coast Conference championship game.

Students can do more at Wingate University...

Wingate University is experiencing tremendous growth, with more than 1,700 students enrolled for the 2006-07 academic year. In order to meet the demands of a busy and productive university, Wingate is expanding with new facilities and renovations.

Founded in 1896, Wingate University consistently ranks among the best small colleges and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The University offers 37 undergraduate majors and master degrees in business, education, physical education and sports administration.

In the fall of 2003, Wingate University made another giant step in both university and pharmacy history, enrolling the charter class of the Wingate University School of Pharmacy. This spring, the school will graduate its first class of pharmacists. All 60 students who began the program in 2003 will graduate.

The Wingate University School of Pharmacy is one of three schools of pharmacy in North Carolina, and the only one in the Piedmont Region. The Cannon Academic Building, which houses the School of Pharmacy, features study rooms, labs, a drug information center, lecture halls and a student lounge. Pharmacy students can utilize Café a la Carte for their dining convenience.

The Dickson-Palmer Student Center offers the ideal location for students to meet, catch a snack or a meal at the Klondike snack bar, work out in the fitness center, play pool or visit the campus bookstore. A recent remodeling of the center has created a large central meeting area with a movable stage for special events.

The Ethel K. Smith Library is home to a vast collection of books, periodicals and other resources. A Starbucks coffee shop is conveniently located in the library, featuring a patio seating area for students to take an outdoor coffee break and visit with friends.

The new Hayes Classroom Building opens this fall, taking some strain from the overflowing class schedule of Burris Hall. Burris will now house offices for many faculty members. Classes will be spread out across Burris and Hayes.

Interior renovations were made in the summer of 2005 to Helms Residence Hall, giving the entire building a makeover. A new annex to Cannon Residence Hall increased space for freshman women by 84 beds. Upperclassmen may choose the best in apartment living on campus at Jefferson at Wingate. These apartments are fully equipped with all the conveniences of home. Additionally, construction will begin this year on a new 72-bed student housing complex.

The women’s softball team will enjoy a new field house with locker rooms for added convenience. Also new this year is a concession stand and restroom facility that overlooks Ron Christopher Baseball Stadium and Plyler Athletic Field.

Wingate University also offers students and visitors the opportunity to attend concerts in the George A. Batte Jr. Fine Arts Center. The 2006-07 concert offerings include Mickey Rooney, The Baltimore Consort, the American Chamber Players, Daria Rabotkina and Five By Design, to name a few. Two Saturday matinees for children are planned for 2006-07.

Every student at Wingate University enjoys the opportunity to travel abroad at little or no additional cost through W’International and other study abroad programs. Over the past 26 years, students and their professors have visited several hundred destinations on five continents throughout the world. Students may also spend a semester abroad in London, Copenhagen and Hong Kong.

More than 40 clubs and organizations, including sororities and fraternities, call Wingate University home. These clubs and organizations give students the opportunity to volunteer in the community and develop leadership skills and friendships that last forever. For students who seek faith-based organizations, the Christian Student Union (CSU) and weekly campus worship services provide a chance to celebrate faith and come together as a family.

Whether an individual participates in the W’International program, is a member of an organization, attends a concert during the year or participates in athletics or intramural sports, students at Wingate University are perpetually busy. There is always something right around the corner to learn, participate in or volunteer for, giving students the chance to follow the three Wingate University pillars: faith, knowledge and service.

The Wingate University women’s basketball team advanced to the finals of the NCAA Division II South Atlantic Regional tournament in 2005-06. Along the way, the Bulldogs earned their ninth SAC regular season title with a 13-1 league slate. Wingate was a perfect 11-0 in the friendly confines of Cuddy Arena last year.

Head coach Johnny Jacumin welcomes back 11 letterwinners and four starters from last year’s 25-7 team. Senior guard Tanetra Barrett was named to the 2006 Daktronics, Inc., NCAA Division II Women’s Basketball All-America first team, selected by members of CoSIDA.

The 2006 South Atlantic Region Player of the Year, Barrett led the SAC in scoring at 19.8 points per game. In addition, she had the top field goal percentage in the league at 53.2. In addition, Barrett received two other All-American honors. She was the 2006 SAC Player of the Year and a first team all-SAC pick.

Senior forward-center Emily Paffrath was the top shot blocker in the South Atlantic Conference last season, blocking 2.6 shots per game. Paffrath also contributed 8.2 points per game and 4.1 rebounds per game.

Sophomore point guard Anna Atkinson was the 2006 SAC Freshman of the Year. Atkinson directed the top-scoring offense in the SAC, as the Bulldogs finished the season averaging 76.4 points per game.

Atkinson led the league in steals per game (2.2) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.2). She finished second in the SAC in assists per game (5.1). She contributed 9.9 points per game and 3.5 rebounds per game during her first season as Wingate’s point guard. Both Paffrath and Atkinson joined Barrett on the All-SAC teams.

All total, nine players return who have started at least one game for the Bulldogs during the course of their careers. Senior forward/center Kerri Metzker led Wingate in free throw percentage, hitting 85.7 percent from the foul line. Metzker averaged 6.7 points per game and 3.3 rebounds per game last season. Sophomore Leslie Tucker will provide depth for the Bulldogs up front.

Wingate has the deepest backcourt in the South Atlantic Conference. Junior guard Kate Edwards led the Bulldogs with 49 three-point field goals in 2005-06. She contributed 6.0 points per game and 2.0 rebounds per game. Senior guard Petra Nagy started 16 games last season. She contributed 2.9 points per game and 11 three-point field goals.

Senior guard/forward Lakin Byer gives the Bulldogs many options, as she can play the two or three position. Byer averaged 3.3 points per game last year. Junior guard Kasey Gillis made the most of her first season in the Wingate blue-and-gold, participating in 30 contests. She contributed 2.9 points per game in 2005-06.

Sophomores Brittany West and Paige Mincey complete Wingate’s veteran roster. Both West and Mincey earned quality playing time as true freshmen. West hit 85.7 percent of her free throws last season.

Bulldog head coach Johnny Jacumin is the dean of SAC coaches, sporting a 26-year record of 568-211 overall during his tenure at Wingate.

Jacumin and his assistant coaches have assembled a quality recruiting class. Post players Autumn Payne (Gordon Central HS) and Stacie Rhodes (North Raleigh Christian Academy) will give the Bulldogs many options in the front court. Guards Suzanne Jones (West Stanly HS) and Sarah Rosser (Wakefield HS) will have every opportunity to earn minutes throughout the season.

Barbara Nelson takes over the Wingate University women’s basketball team after an extremely successful high school coaching career at Providence Day School in Charlotte. She replaces Johnny Jacumin, who retired at the end of the 2006-07 season following 27 seasons at the NCAA Division II school.

As the head varsity girls’ basketball coach at Providence Day School in Charlotte, she compiled a 437-176 record with seven NCISAA state championships in 21 seasons with the Chargers. PDS was named the Charlotte Observer Sweet 16 champions five times. In addition, Providence Day won the CISAA basketball conference crown nine times under Nelson’s watch.

In 2006-07, Nelson led the Chargers to a 30-4 overall record, a state title and a conference championship. The Charlotte Observer named Nelson its girls’ basketball Coach of the Year for her efforts this season, the fourth time she has received this prestigious honor. Nelson has compiled a winning record in 19 of her 21 seasons with the Chargers. The 30 wins this year were a career-best for Nelson.

Barbara Nelson has ties to the South Atlantic Conference. She is a graduate of Presbyterian College with a B.S. degree in Psychology. A four-year letter winner in basketball for the Blue Hose, Nelson served two years on the Scotsman Club board for her alma mater. She coached three players who signed SAC scholarships, including current Carson-Newman College rising senior forward Tashea Ledbetter.

The accolades her Providence Day players have received could fill several scrapbooks. Konecka Drakeford was a two-time Parade All-American (1991 and 1993). Drakeford was the NCAA Division II Player of the Year her senior season at Johnson C. Smith University.

Both Drakeford and Natasha Brackett were named the Gatorade N.C. Player of the Year and N.C. Miss Basketball in 1993 and 2001, respectively. Brackett (Auburn) is one of four former Chargers to sign NCAA Division I scholarships. Drakeford (Israel and Turkey) and Brackett (Israel) have played professionally as well.

Nelson’s involvement in the game of basketball extends beyond the Providence Day campus. A 12-year participant in the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA), Nelson was a high school All-American selection committee member in 2006-07. She has been a Nike Basketball Camp Director from 1999 to the present.

She has coached AAU basketball (boys and girls) since 1986. Nelson was an assistant coach for an AAU 18 and under state and national championship team in 1986. She has coached the Charlotte Royals (boys), Charlotte Monarchs, Carolina Comets and N.C. Flight. Nelson spent two years as a floor coach for the WNBA Charlotte Sting during open and free-agent tryouts.

“Barbara Nelson has an intensity and passion for the game of basketball,” Vice-President and Director of Athletics Steve Poston said. “Since our first interview, Coach Nelson has approached this opportunity with enthusiasm and excitement.”

“She understands the balance an NCAA Division II student-athlete must achieve,” Poston noted. “We want to offer each of our student-athletes a well-balanced experience athletically, academically, socially and spiritually. Barbara Nelson understands this concept very well.”

“Her track record is proven; Barbara Nelson knows how to win,” Poston added. “It is very important for us not to lose a step.”
DEBRA SAVINO
Assistant Coach

Debra Savino joins the Wingate University women’s basketball coaching staff in the summer of 2007. Savino was an assistant women’s basketball coach at nearby Queens University of Charlotte in 2006. She has also been a Physical Education teacher and the head basketball and field hockey coach at Charlotte Country Day since 2001 and the Camp Director for basketball and field hockey since 2002. Savino was named the Mecklenburg County field hockey Coach of the Year in the fall of 2006.

Savino received her Bachelor of Science degree in Government from Clark University in Worcester, Mass. At Clark, Savino participated in two Final Fours in basketball. Also, she was a member of two state championship teams in field hockey. Savino earned her Masters of Science in Physical Education at Winthrop University.

Savino has loads of coaching experience at many different levels. She was the head coach of the Charlotte Heat, a semi-pro team in the Women’s Blue Chip Basketball League. Also, Savino was the head basketball coach at Charlotte Country Day for five seasons.

In addition, Savino has attended numerous coaching clinics to continue her professional development. She attended the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Conference/Final Four each of the past four years. Also, she attended Coach K’s Coaching Academy at Duke University in 1997. Savino participated in WBCA/Adidas Coaches Clinic with Pat Summitt and Billie Moore in 2000.

“Coach Savino brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our staff,” Wingate head coach Barbara Nelson said. “She has been an assistant at the college and high school levels as well as a head coach in high school and AAU basketball. She is an accomplished floor coach and has extensive knowledge in training and conditioning.”

“Coach Savino and I have worked together previously with great success and I am excited that she will be joining Wingate’s basketball program,” Nelson added. “Coach Savino will be planning and implementing Wingate’s weight and conditioning program along with many other basketball duties.”

Savino has also spent time as an ACC field hockey official. Furthermore, she served as the Vice-President of the Carolina Field Hockey Coaches Association for three years. In addition to her experience as a certified NCAA field hockey official, Savino has spent time as a lacrosse official as well.

A graduate of Lake Region High School (Naples, Maine), Savino was inducted into the LRHS Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. She won the Carl Bolick Coach of the Year award at Charlotte Country Day School in 2004. Under her watch, CCDS won the NCISAA field hockey state championship in 2005. While an assistant coach at Providence Day School, Savino helped then-head coach Barbara Nelson lead the Chargers to the NCISAA state championship in basketball (2001).

BROOKE WILKINSON
Graduate Assistant Coach

Brooke Wilkinson is in her second season with the women’s basketball coaching staff at Wingate University. She is entering her second year with the Bulldogs and her first season under new head coach Barbara Nelson. Wilkinson was an assistant for head coach Johnny Jacumin in 2006-07.

Wilkinson was a four-year starter on the women’s basketball team at Gardner-Webb University, where she was a standout performer on and off the court for the GWU Bulldogs.

A Gastonia native, the East Gaston High School product finished her career in second place for most games played (106) and most games started (87) at Gardner-Webb. A good all-around player, Wilkinson netted a career-high 22 points against Mercer on Jan. 3, 2004. She dished out a career-best seven assists against Florida Atlantic in 2003, currently the second most in a single game in GWU history.

“Brooke was a solid player for us and we are grateful for her time at Gardner-Webb,” GWU head coach Rick Reeves said. “She helped us reach the Atlantic Sun Tournament for the first time in our history during her senior season. We wish her continued success at Wingate University.”

Wilkinson graduated in May, 2006 and earned her degree in public relations with a minor in business administration. She is enrolled in Wingate’s MBA program through the University’s Metro College.

IT RUNS CIRCLES AROUND EVERYTHING... INCLUDING THE COMPETITION

The new Kubota ZD21 zero turning radius mower is designed to take on the toughest turf—all day, everyday.
The ZD has the lowest noise level of any mower in its class.
Our Deluxe Link-Type suspension seat gives you the smoothest, most comfortable ride you’ve ever had on a turf mower. A PTO powered blower feeds a huge 12-bushel hopper so you can mow longer before stopping to empty clippings.
The mid-mount mower is easily raised and lowered with a Hydraulic Lift. Cutting height is adjusted by turning a dial.
Kubota’s unique Tilt-Up feature allows you to easily raise the front of the mower to perform routine blade maintenance, without removing the mower deck.
Innovation. Performance. Convenience. If this is what you value in a turf mower, climb aboard.

The Wingate University Bulldog Club provides alumni, parents and friends of the University with the opportunity to support the student-athletes who so proudly wear the blue and gold. All contributions to the Bulldog Club are 100 percent tax deductible and help provide funding for the athletic scholarships.

In 2005-06, 402 Wingate students participated on 17 NCAA Division II varsity teams, winning three conference championships and six regional tournament bids. The Bulldogs compete in the South Atlantic Conference, one of the premier conferences in the country.

Bulldog Club members receive monthly newsletters and E-mail updates about the progress of the athletic teams in season. They are welcomed by the hospitality room before home football and at conference basketball doubleheaders.

The Bulldog Club is a way for friends of the University to stay connected and help outstanding young men and women compete in college athletics. Last year, the Bulldog Club had 181 memberships and 194 members. Our goal for 2006-07 is to have a minimum of 200 Club members.

This year, the Bulldog Club will sponsor the Bill Connell Memorial Golf Tournament Friday, October 27 during the University’s Homecoming festivities. We hope everyone will come out for a great day of fun, fellowship, food and golf.

Join the Bulldog Club today and share in the success of the Wingate athletic program. Know that your gift is important to the future of Wingate University.
