

The rolling hills of Rheinhessen

The Wittmann family

— Introducing — WITTMANN 2018 “100 Hills” Rosé

WEINGUT WITTMANN

The Wittmann estate has as its foundation the pursuit of balanced wines that have tension, depth and intensity, but are at the same time fresh and elegant. Owner Philipp Wittmann has no doubt that this complex character can only be created in the vineyard, so attention to detail in the viticulture is of primary importance.

THE RHEINHESSEN REGION

The Rheinhessen is a vast area of rolling hills in the knee of the Rhine river, between the Pfalz and the Rheingau. Wine grapes have been cultivated here since Roman times. Many different grape varieties are grown here, including the Pinot varieties. The soils are primarily based on limestone, with a mix of topsoils, including clay, marl and loess.

“100 HILLS” ROSÉ

The entry-level “100 Hills” wines are produced with about 40% estate-harvested fruit, primarily from sites that are not as dominated by limestone as the estate’s best vineyards. The remainder of the fruit is sourced from other local growers, all of whom are members of Naturland, a German certification organization for Organic agriculture.

The fruit for this delightful Pinot Noir Rosé was harvested by hand. After a brief maceration (about four hours), it was pressed and fermented naturally in stainless steel tanks.
