Dear State Attorney Ayala,

I write to inform you that, Derek Chauvin, the police officer who killed George Floyd in Minnesota, voted in Orange County Florida in 2016 and 2018 as a registered Republican.

I discovered this information in the voter file, which is a public record.

While living in Minnesota, working there, paying taxes there, Derek Chauvin cannot claim residency in Orange County. His home, residency and where he intends to live is in Minnesota, not Florida. This is a violation of our election laws, specifically Fla. Stat. 104.011 (2), a third degree felony.

I encourage you to hold people accountable for their actions, especially breaking the laws of our state.

Warm Regards,

Dan Helm
