Ellen Wallace will graduate Magna Cum Laude from the University of North Alabama with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education with concentration in Special Education. While at UNA, Ellen has been a member and leader for the College of Education and Human Sciences Ambassador program which assists the local schools and communities. She is a member of the National Honor Society for Education, Kappa Delta Pi and has consistently made the Dean’s list each semester. Ellen will begin her Master’s degree in Elementary Education in the Fall.

Laney Davis graduated summa cum laude from Athens State University in December, 2022. She received a bachelors of Science degree in Elementary Education. While at Athens State, she quickly became involved in leadership roles. She was selected to be a member of the National Society of Leadership and Success. Based on her academic performance, she was invited to be a member of Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society and was selected to serve as Vice-President. Laney also earned the KDP Award of Excellence. She is currently teaching 3rd grade at Forest Hills Elementary and plans to marry Will Potts in September. Laney has attended Woodlawn since birth and has received an enormous amount of love and support from her church family. For this, she is very thankful. “I would not be who I am today without the love and influence of my church family.”

Emma Kate Heupel is graduating Cum Laude from Freed Hardeman University with a B.S. in Interdisciplinary Studies with Elementary Education. She is the daughter of Matt and Leah Heupel. She was the recipient of the Lioness Award, which is given to a representative of FHU and what it stands for while developing their God-given talents, leadership, focus on items in the mission, Christ-like attitude and someone who has been able to shine their light while they are teaching, in addition to scholarship, academic excellence, service and encouragement. While at Freed Hardeman, Emma was a member of the Phi Kappa Alpha social club and served on the Makin’ Music review team and was a director for 2 years. Emma plans to return to Florence and hopes to teach in one of our local schools in the fall. She will marry Avery Thrasher on June 3rd.
