The Original Reverse Coloring Book: Through the Seasons (See page 19.)
Do the Work!
An Antiracist Activity Book

W. Kamau Bell and Kate Schatz

For all the people who find themselves overwhelmed by racial injustice, outmanned by the news, shocked by the ugly parts of American history, and who keep asking “What can I DOOOO?” comes the answer: Do the Work! Created by the sociopolitical comedian W. Kamau Bell and bestselling author Kate Schatz, Do the Work! is a revelatory, thought-provoking, highly illustrated interactive workbook designed to give readers a hands-on understanding of systemic racism, white privilege, and Black disenfranchisement. With bright and bold illustrations by BIPOC artists, readers will experience the effects of voter suppression through a Connect-the-Dots gerrymandering activity of Pennsylvania’s 7th district. Learn about redlining through a Color-by-Numbers map based on the infamous examples used by the Home Owners’ Loan Corporation in the late 1930s. Take a “Jim Crow or Jim Faux” quiz that tests knowledge of racist laws in the United States. And try their hands at questions from the state of Alabama’s 1965 Literacy Test (miss more than 7 of 68 questions and no voting for you!).

Through it all, Bell and Schatz not only allow us to understand all the ways in which racism shows up in our society, but also how to take action: There are protester paper dolls paired with tips on staying safe at a demonstration. Tear-out pages to fill in the names of elected officials and their contact information. And even a scavenger hunt to help you diversify your feed and the words and ideas you consume. All in the name of doing the work, Do the Work! is an enormously clever and enlightening guide meant to be picked up, read, played with, shared, and absorbed.

W. Kamau Bell is the host and executive producer of CNN’s five-time Emmy Award-winning docuseries United Shades of America with W. Kamau Bell and host of the critically acclaimed podcast Politically Re-Active. He is on the advisory board of Hollaback! and Donors Choose, and he is the ACLU Celebrity Ambassador for Racial Justice.

Kate Schatz is the New York Times bestselling author of the Rad Women book series, including Rad American Women A–Z, Rad Women Worldwide, and Rad American History A–Z. She is the cofounder of Solidarity Sundays, a nationwide network of feminist activist groups.

I Will Teach You to Be Rich: The Journal
Dream Your Rich Life, Then Make It Happen

Ramit Sethi

Ramit Sethi is the personal finance expert whose New York Times bestseller, I Will Teach You to Be Rich, has helped more than a million readers get on the path to financial independence through a highly practical six-week program. At the core of his message is the idea of the rich life—where it’s not just about the dollars but about the meaning, and where experiences are as much a priority as what’s in your wallet.

Now in this companion to the original book, Sethi guides readers through the process of clarifying exactly what a rich life means to them, and then shows them how to make it happen. Packed with provocative prompts, lists, and real-world examples, I Will Teach You to Be Rich: The Journal is an interactive, fill-in book whose every page is designed for introspection, dreaming, and creative brainstorming. Sethi shows you how to rewire your money beliefs by questioning the myths and clichés—for example, “Buy, don’t rent”—that might not make sense for you.

There are prompts that show you how to be more confident about money and individual challenges to make your goals a daily reality. There are insights on the path to financial independence through a highly practical six-week program and a forthcoming Netflix show.

- A guided journal from the author of the New York Times bestseller I Will Teach You to Be Rich, with more than 1 million copies in print
- Tools and prompts to help readers redefine their relationship to money and create and pursue their “rich life” goals—ones that are tailored and customized to be precisely theirs
- From an author whose star just keeps rising, with a million readers and customized to be precisely
- redefining their relationship to money
- a six-week program
- and creating and pursuing their “rich life” goals—ones that are tailored and customized to be precisely theirs
- Ultimate, you’ll visualize your rich life, one that’s tailored, customized, and unmistakably you. Let the journey begin.

The Kids’ Book of Chess and Starter Kit
Learn to Play and Become a Grandmaster!

Harvey Kidder • Illustrated by George Ermos

It’s the classic, revised and re-illustrated! With more than 1 million copies sold, The Kids’ Book of Chess is the bestselling introduction for kids to the game that’s inspired passion and challenge for over 900 years—and, thanks to Netflix’s monster hit The Queen’s Gambit, is again surging in popularity.

The New Yorker said it best: “Harvey Kidder explains the game with a clarity that is almost absolute.” Kidder captures chess’s energy and excitement in the game’s origins—the medieval battlefield—while offering instruction that is direct and concrete. Pawns, modeled after common foot soldiers, advance step by step. The Knight’s leaping L-shaped move recalls the warrior on horseback. Illustrations bring all this pomp and pageantry to life while the text covers the beginning, middle, and end game, along with winning strategies for offense and defense.

With new art throughout, a full chess set of sturdy punch-out cardboard pieces, and a cardboard chessboard, The Kids’ Book of Chess and Starter Kit has everything a child needs to step away from the screen and start playing the greatest analog game ever created.

- A revised and re-illustrated edition of the classic with over 1 million copies sold
- Everything you need to learn and play the game, including a full-color instruction book, a full-size chessboard, a set of sturdy 3-D cardboard pieces to build, and a bag to store them in
- Two words—Queen’s Gambit—created a tremendous surge in chess’s popularity
- For ages 8–12

Harvey Kidder wrote The Kids’ Book of Chess for his six-year-old son, David, fifty years and a million copies ago.

32 easy-to-assemble sturdy cardboard pieces included!

Fully illustrated, full-size chessboard included!

Diagrams break down the moves and the rules into easily understandable steps

Now it’s baby’s turn! Announcing a brand-new Brain Quest® program for the very youngest learners.

Imbued with the “It’s Fun to Be Smart!”® core value that’s made Brain Quest America’s beloved #1 educational brand with more than 57 million copies in print, My First Brain Quest board books introduce babies and toddlers to early learning concepts the Brain Quest way.

Launching the series are four titles, each designed to build early learning skills like pre-reading and pre-math.

ABCs is a fun, engaging alphabet book that helps babies and toddlers learn the letters of the alphabet and expand their vocabulary and phonics skills.

123s is a rhyming counting book that presents numbers in a variety of ways, providing an understanding of number representation and quantity. Colors introduces ten basic colors through lively illustrations and a catchy, rhyming text. And Shapes helps lay the foundation for pre-math skills, as children learn to identify nine shapes and describe their attributes.

Smart, colorful, grounded in educational principles, and defined by the signature question-and-answer format, these books are Brain Quest at its best: not only making learning fun, but now encouraging the kind of give-and-take between adult and child that makes early learning meaningful.

Why We Travel
100 Reasons to Get Up and Go
Patricia Schultz
For years Patricia Schultz has been telling us where to go—her 1,000 Places to See Before You Die® books and calendars have sold millions of copies to eager travelers looking to explore new destinations and round out bucket lists. Now, in a beautifully illustrated gift book that’s filled with inspiration perfectly timed to meet the pent-up demand for travel, Patricia Schultz tells us why to go.

Personal stories and anecdotes, quotes about travel, affirmations, ideas, and travel hacks—and stunning photographs throughout—Why We Travel comes at us from many directions, but all of them point to the same goal: Travel is one of the most richly rewarding experiences we can have. It is, as Pico Iyer says, the place where we stay up late, follow impulse and find ourselves as wide open as when we are in love. It is something we must do ourselves, since No one can explore the world for us.

It encourages us to go for ourselves as wide open as when we are in love. It is something we must do ourselves, since No one can explore the world for us.

At every turn Why We Travel urges us to set out for adventure while at the same time satisfying our deepest travel itch, even from the comfort of an armchair.

Paint by Sticker®: Plants and Flowers
Create 12 Stunning Images One Sticker at a Time!
The phenomenon that is Paint by Sticker just keeps growing. The kids’ series is on fire, with 4.9 million copies in print, and last year the robust sales of the adult series made an extraordinary leap: We shipped 445,000 copies in 2020, double that of 2019. Now the success of Paint by Sticker runs headlong into another rising trend—the passion for flowers and plants.

So bright, so colorful, so interesting in their lines and shapes—flowers, succulents, houseplants, and decorative vines are the perfect subject for painting by sticker. In Plants and Flowers, readers can re-create the sculptural majesty of a saguaro cactus. There are roses, the queen of all flowers. A hanging basket of pansies with their irresistible upturned faces. A delicate orchid, a lush stargazer lily, and the iconic monstera with its signature leaves. And readers will find information about the plant on the back of each image—including growing zones, identifying features, and fascinating facts.

Created for crafters, artists, coloring book fans, doodlers, people who like puzzles, and anyone who just likes doing something with their hands, Paint by Sticker is the ingenious process where an image is rendered in geometric low-poly shapes and then converted to stickers, giving the image a curiously satisfying 3-D effect. But all the user needs to know is this: Find the sticker, peel the sticker, place the sticker—and watch your floral masterpiece come to life. The card-stock pages are perforated to allow the artwork to be easily removed for framing or display.

• From the #1 bestselling author of 1,000 Places to See Before You Die books, with over 4.7 million copies in print
• Not where to travel but why—with personal stories, anecdotes, quotes, lists, and aphorisms, all accompanied by extraordinary full-color photographs
• The travel industry predicts a boom in Spring 2022, with so much pent-up demand for adventure

The Ultimate Biography of Earth
From the Big Bang to Today!
Nick Lund • Illustrated by Jason Ford

Here it is: the celebrity biography we didn’t know we wanted, and now can’t get enough of—the riveting story of the planet we call home, told in biography form. The voice is friendly, irreverent, and funny, delivering impeccable science in a riveting story of the planet.

Readers will travel back 4.6 billion years, when Earth formed out of parts left from the huge explosion that created the Sun. Learn about the first life on Earth—tiny, single-celled organisms called prokaryotes. Meet bizarre creatures like the walking spiky worm, Hallucigenia, so named because the scientists who first discovered the fossils thought they were hallucinating (we’re still not sure which end is which). And get an eyewitness’s view of the asteroid that ended the Cretaceous Era and eliminated 75% of species on Earth, making way for the Cenozoic Era—the one we live in now. All of which reinforces how the planet has changed over time while driving home the importance of caring for Earth—now and into the future.

A sweeping era-by-era natural history of Earth for kids who are science buffs, history buffs, nature lovers, or just plain curious

From the Big Bang to the current age of humans, the story of our planet told in a lively and fun-to-read biography form with Earth as the main character

Illustrated throughout and packed with facts

For ages 10 and up

Nick Lund is a conservationist and nature writer. His writing has appeared in Audubon Magazine, National Parks Magazine, Slate.com, the Washington Post, the Maine Sportsman, and others. He is a graduate of the University of Maine School of Law and worked in federal energy policy in Washington, DC, before returning to Maine with his wife and son to work for Maine Audubon.

Omar Garriott and Jeremy Schifeling

An estimated seven in ten American employees want a new job. Millions more are making their first career step after graduating. And most of them will use LinkedIn—or try. Because while LinkedIn is the dominant platform for hiring, networking, and recruiting, very few job seekers know how to maximize its incredible power. Here are two who do: Omar Garriott and Jeremy Schifeling, career coaches who ran LinkedIn’s education team before forming the Job Insiders to advise all levels of job seekers. Now they’re sharing all they know in Linked, the definitive guide to conquering LinkedIn, written for everyone from the newly minted college graduate to the midlife career-changer.

At the core of LinkedIn is an indispensable five-step framework for the modern job search. It gives candidates the tools and techniques that matter most to cut through the clutter on LinkedIn’s massive site while focusing on the new realities of the job market—including how employers actually zero in on new hires, and how you can ensure that you stand out. Clear, lively, accessible, and direct, Linked teaches how to burnish your increasingly important personal online brand. Work the powerful Network Effect, like turning a simple introduction into an invaluable referral. Learn how to think like recruiters and tailor your profile and job application to their needs. Master the three rules of the LinkedIn search algorithm, and game the Applicant Tracking Systems used by more and more recruiters. And employ advanced LinkedIn hacks, like playing “Who Viewed My Profile Roulette,” and strategically post articles relevant to the industry you want to join.

The result: not just the job you want, but the future of your dreams.

Overthinking About You
Navigating Romantic Relationships When You Have Anxiety, OCD, and/or Depression

Allison Raskin

R elationships are hard enough. But for a person living with mental illness, even the thought of starting and maintaining a romantic relationship can be overwhelming. The writer Allison Raskin knows this firsthand, and in this brilliantly forthright and humorous book she provides clear-cut advice on how to form healthy dating and relationship habits when you have anxiety, OCD, and/or depression. And that is a lot of people. One in five Americans will experience a mental health challenge in any given year, and among younger people—Generation Z and Millennials—the numbers are significantly higher. Part memoir, part self-help book, and filled with action steps, Overthinking About You is compellingly readable and relatable, packed with hard-won honest truths on the highs and lows of dating and deeply grounded in the latest thinking from clinical psychologists and dating experts. There’s wisdom on every page: How and why to avoid mis-labeling thoughts as facts, The impact of SSRIs, How and why to avoid mis-labeling thoughts as facts, Understanding and preventing depression, and action steps

• A much-needed self-help book for readers who live with mental health conditions, offering life-changing advice and insight on dating and relationships
• Compellingly readable and relatable, combining memoir, interviews with psychologists and relationship experts, true stories, and action steps
• Geared especially toward Gen Z and Millennial readers, but filled with hope, help, and humor for anyone experiencing mental health concerns

Indestructibles®
High Color High Contrast

- Taste the Fruit!
- Touch Your Nose!

Amy Pixton and Lizzy Doyle

A nnouncing the irresistible marriage of two powerful ideas in books for babies: the rip-proof, chew-proof, drool-proof Indestructibles format and the proven benefits of high-contrast images—with a colorful twist! Parents and teachers know to reach for high-contrast books because they nurture baby’s developing eyesight. Building on that foundation, these books pose colorful images against classic black-and-white patterns to create high-contrast books that grow with baby.

Taste the Fruit! introduces babies to fruits and their many bright colors. Each page shows a vibrant fruit—like an orange mango or a purple plum—against a patterned black-and-white high-contrast background.

In Touch Your Nose!, two adorable babies move and identify different parts of their bodies:

- Can you stretch your arms?
- Lie on your tummy?
- Crawl on your knees?

The Indestructibles success story is extraordinary—the series is now shipping more than a million copies a year. Add in the high-color, high-contrast concept and voila: a series extension that packs a double punch!

- The irresistible marriage of two powerful ideas: books that are rip-proof and books that use high-contrast art for babies’ developing eyesight
- Taste the Fruit! introduces babies to fruits and colors; Touch Your Nose! helps babies discover the different parts of their bodies
- Indestructibles are now shipping more than a million copies a year and have 8.2 million copies in print
- For babies ages 0 and up

Amy Pixton, a mother of triplets, created Indestructibles after bits of traditional board books found their way into her babies’ mouths. She lives in Kansas City, Kansas, with her family.

Lizzy Doyle is a designer, illustrator, and author living in New Jersey. She graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology with a degree in Graphic Design. Lizzy began her career in publishing, designing books, craft kits, and toys.

A flow® book
A Book That Loves You
An Adventure in Self-Compassion

Irene Smit and Astrid van der Hulst

S low down, celebrate the flaws, own the good stuff, and focus on learning to love and appreciate yourself. These themes of self-compassion and self-care are hugely relevant, and Flow® has a unique and creative take on them. Now, following A Book That Takes Its Time, with 203,000 copies in print, A Book That Loves You offers a message that will resonate in its simplicity: Be sweet to yourself, no matter what kind of day you’re having. (In fact, the challenging days may be the days you’ll most want to pick up the book.)

Discover the comforting effects of a daily ritual, like drinking tea. Why it’s okay—and even beautiful—to stumble now and again. Embrace the art of being alone. Release the reins on your schedule. And learn to love yourself with all your imperfections—including your busy, overproductive mind. The book combines Flow’s signature scrapbook-like look and feel, focus on mindfulness, and high production standards. Sprinkled throughout the essays, illustrations, and sayings are paper “goodies,” designed to help readers put what they read into action: A sticker puzzle to complete, a pullout “My Own User Manual” to personalize, a DIY flower to assemble and enjoy.

It’s a delightful gift for yourself or someone you care about—a book to peruse and engage with, using creativity and intention.

Irene Smit and Astrid van der Hulst are the cofounders of Flow magazine, the international publication that, with its unique combination of paper goodies and beautiful illustrations, celebrates creativity, imperfection, and life’s little pleasures.

Steal Like an Artist

10 Things Nobody Told You About Being Creative

Austin Kleon

In the ten years since publishing the groundbreaking New York Times bestseller Steal Like an Artist, Austin Kleon has become one of the most important names in creativity. His books have more than a million copies in print and have been translated into dozens of languages; he’s been featured on NPR’s Morning Edition and the PBS NewsHour and in the New York Times and Wall Street Journal; and he’s been praised as “brilliant” (New York) and “positively one of the most interesting people on the internet” (The Atlantic).

We’re thrilled to celebrate this milestone and its significance with a special 10th anniversary edition of Steal Like an Artist. This hardcover gift edition has a larger trim, revised cover, ribbon marker, endpapers from the author’s sketchbook, and a new Afterword.

An inspiring guide to creativity in the digital age, Steal Like an Artist presents ten transformative principles to help readers discover their artistic side and build a more creative life. Its positive message, graphic look, and illustrations, exercises, and examples inspire readers to get started doing good work. Learn how to embrace influence and follow your interests wherever they take you.

Forget old clichés like writing about what you know—instead, write the book that you want to read, make the movie you want to watch. And above all, learn how to find the space you need to be wild and daring in your imagination and your work. In his Afterword, Kleon discusses the book’s influence and how “stealing” has been misunderstood—providing a unique, personal perspective on a book that’s touched so many over the past decade.

There Are Moms Way Worse Than You

Irrefutable Proof That You Are Indeed a Fantastic Parent

Glenn Boozan • Illustrated by Priscilla Witte

Every mom has those moments—whether it’s once in a blue moon or, well, once an hour—of feeling that they’re falling short. But guess what: The world is filled with moms worse than you. Way worse. To take just one example, hamster moms sometimes eat their newborn pups. No one knows exactly why, but one thing we do know—you didn’t eat your baby! Good job!

Glenn Boozan is an Emmy-nominated comedy writer who delivers a unique approach to celebrating moms everywhere—by giving a reality check on what really constitutes a “good mother” and letting readers revel in the amazing discoveries she’s made. Hilariously reassuring, grounded in facts from the animal kingdom, written in lively rhyming verse, and delightfully illustrated, There Are Moms Way Worse Than You is like a really smart picture book for parents.

For dinnertime, koala moms will feed her kids her poop.

Remember that when you feel bad for giving yours fast food.

A mom giraffe is pretty nice until the fetus drops.

She’ll birth a newborn baby calf, then kick him ’til he walks.

And above all, learn how to find the space you need to be wild and daring in your imagination and your work. In his Afterword, Kleon discusses the book’s influence and how “stealing” has been misunderstood—providing a unique, personal perspective on a book that’s touched so many over the past decade.

Glenn Boozan is an Emmy Award–nominated comedy writer who wrote for CONAN, Comedy Central’s Lights Out with David Spade, and Sarah Silverman’s Hulu talk show, I Love You, America. She’s also written for the New Yorker, the Onion, and MTV. Her website is glennboozan.com.

Priscilla Witte is a Los Angeles–based illustrator and muralist. Her work has taken her from the Black Sea of Russia to the beaches along the coast of Bali. Some of her clients include Warner Music, Barbie, and Google. Her most recent mural is painted in downtown Los Angeles between a Jeff Koons and a Takashi Murakami.
Go
A Kid’s Guide to Graphic Design
Chip Kidd

Now in paperback, the one-of-a-kind book that People called “A thing of beauty,” that HuffPost declared “Awesome,” that Milton Glaser said was “An excellent introduction . . . delightful,” and of which the Wimpy Kid author Jeff Kinney said, “I wish I had this book when I was a kid.”

Written by Chip Kidd, Go is a stunning introduction into the ways in which designers communicate their ideas to the world. Written and designed for curious kids, Go explains the elements of design, including form, line, color, scale, and typography, and, more importantly, how to use those elements in creative ways. Like putting the word “go” on a stop sign (check out that book cover!), Go is all about shaking things up—and kids will love its playful spirit and its premise: The world looks better when you look at it differently. Kidd writes about scale: When a picture looks good small, don’t stop there—see how it looks when it’s really small. He explains the effect of cropping a picture to make it beautiful—or cropping it even more to make it mysterious and compelling. How different colors signify different moods. The art of typography, including serif and sans serif, kerning and leading. And how two visually contrasting things can create a new idea when combined.

Readers are challenged to think beyond the book; after discussing how to consider one’s visual identity, Kidd shows readers the development of a personal logo.

Kidd’s examples of design are both focused and playful. Here he shows how two visually contrasting things can create a new idea when combined.

The Original Reverse Coloring Book™:
Through the Seasons
Kendra Norton

So simple. So profoundly satisfying. Introduced in the fall of 2021, reverse coloring offers a whole new idea in coloring books and other meditative activities: The book has the colors, and you draw the lines. It’s an idea that truly lets your imagination run free while inviting you to slow down, enter a moment of mindfulness, and let your pen find its way over the page.

Now comes the second book in the series, The Original Reverse Coloring Book: Through the Seasons, inspired by one of the most enduring motifs in art—the variety of seasonal colors and shapes and how they change. Created by Kendra Norton, Through the Seasons offers fifty beautiful and whimsical watercolors arranged in a way that flows through the year—spring with its bright florals, summer awash in heavenly greens and blues, the riotous colors of autumn, and the muted, soothing palette of a winter’s day. Each image provides a gentle visual guide for daydreamy exploration. Trace the shapes, draw in figures, doodle, shade, cover an area with dots. Be realistic, with a plan, or simply let your imagination drift, as if looking at clouds in the sky. The creative possibilities are endless.

Images in the book are printed on sturdy paper that’s single-sided and perforated. All you need is a pen.

The creative possibilities are endless: trace, doodle, shade, cover with dots, make an image, or simply let your imagination drift. "Will satisfy all ur doodling needs. Add the lines to the color and tab dah! There it is! Free ur mind and the doodles will follow.”

—Rosie O’Donnell

Rejection Collection

The Best of the Rejection Collection

307 Cartoons That Were Too Dark, Too Weird, or Too Naughty for The New Yorker

Rescued by Matthew Diffee

They're back: the funniest cartoons you'll never see in The New Yorker. Now in its second edition, The Best of the Rejection Collection has 20% new cartoons, new contributors (like Jeremy Nguyen, Emily Flake, and Maddie Dai), and a new introduction by the author—all now in a more compact trim size. But not everything's changed—the new edition keeps 100% of the genius-without-restraint quality that caused Eustace Tilley to hold his nose and turn away when those cartoons were originally submitted.

It doesn't matter if the artist is Roz Chast or Ellis Rosen or David Sipress—even Matthew Diffee, the curator of this very collection, isn't exempt. If the work in question is too weird, too dark, too naughty, too juvenile, or too outrageous, it will be rejected. Fortunately for us, Matthew Diffee rescued these cartoons from the circular file to share with the world, and what a treat it is. The Best of the Rejection Collection series has over 117,000 copies in print and lives in Los Angeles, California.

Matthew Diffee has been contributing cartoons to The New Yorker since 1999, and to date has had more than 300 cartoons published in the magazine (and thousands more rejected). He is the author of The Rejection Collection, The Rejection Collection, Vol. 2, and Hand Drawn Jokes for Smart Attractive People and lives in Los Angeles, California.

Fart Games, Fart Puzzles, Fart Pranks, and More Farts!

Julie Winterbottom ● Illustrated by Clau Souza

Kids love farts, and they’re not embarrassed to admit it (or emit it). There’s something intrinsically funny and fascinating about a fart, whether it’s one’s own or another’s. So get ready to blast off!

What a Blast! written by Julie Winterbottom, author of Pranklopedia and Frightlopedia together with 186,000 copies in print, is a cheerfully over-the-top illustrated celebration of farts, packed with activities and delivering science and fun in a way that kids can’t get enough of.

Take a trip through the body’s digestive system to learn why and how we fart—which we do, on average, 10 to 20 times per day (luckily, 99% of farts are entirely odorless). Find out which is likely the fartiest food in the world: the Jerusalem artichoke, a root vegetable that is positively loaded with gas-producing inulin. Complete a fart-slang word search, and then come up with your own words for farts. And meet infamous farters from history, including Joseph Pujol, aka Le Péromane, a “fartiste” who entertained 19th-century France by tooting songs, imitating animals, and blowing out candles with his farts. Plus the origins of the whoopee cushion, what to say if you fart in public—yeah, you heard me—and jokes. So, many jokes: How do you make a regular bath into a bubble bath? Hint: Jerusalem artichoke . . .

For other titles by Julie Winterbottom, see page 52.

- A book for kids who love farts—and what kid doesn’t?
- Packed with fun and interactive flatulence-related activities, games, jokes, and pranks
- The Smelly Truth—history and science facts—rounds out every spread to teach kids the true story behind why, when, how farts happen
- For ages 7 and up

What a Blast!

It’s an irresistible gift or self-purchase for crafters, for letter writers, for sticker collectors, for word lovers.

• The So. Many. Stickers series has a combined 233,000 copies in print
• The only alphabet-sticker book on the market, it features pages of beautifully designed sticker alphabets in both traditional type styles and creative variations
• For sticker fanatics, planner devotees, crafters, letter writers, or anyone who loves words

Paperfold Wild Animals
10 Lifelike Punch-Out-and-Fold Paper Creatures
Megan Montague Cash

You can almost hear the lion’s roar! Announcing an ingeniously fun new idea in paper craft for kids. Think of it as the anti-origami—instead of complicated folds leading to an abstract result, Paperfold Wild Animals uses a punch-out design, two simple types of folds (the classics: “mountain” and “valley”), and beautiful full-color illustration to let kids ages seven and up construct creatures that are satisfying to make and a real spark to the imagination. And they’re especially good for parents, with no scissors required, no glue or tape needed, and no mess to clean up afterward.

Conceived, designed, and illustrated by Megan Montague Cash, Paperfold Wild Animals gives kids everything they need to make ten favorite animals from around the world: lion, giraffe, elephant, tortoise, ibex, orangutan, wolf, kangaroo, crocodile, and bear. Not just a wolf—a howling wolf. Not just an ibex—an ibex with its head down and horns up, ready to charge. Not just a bear, but a bear about to enjoy a meal of the fresh salmon it just scooped out of the water. Lifelike in how they’re shaped and posed, illustrated with realistic markings and graced with expressive features—enough sense of personality—they will inspire hours of imaginative play. And the book itself has a special design—it opens out like an accordion that separates into ten elegantly shaped punch-out pages for easy, directions, and fact cards about every animal.

• An ingeniously fun new idea in paper craft for kids—plus no mess, no scissors, no tape, no glue
• Much easier than origami and resulting in ten elegantly shaped and posed wild animals with expressive features
• Unique accordion-stye format: features 10 punch-out animals and 10 collectible fact cards—great for a group activity!
• For ages 7 and up

Tanya Carroll Richardson

There are days when we all need it—a reminder to care for ourselves, empower ourselves, motivate ourselves, and love ourselves, fiercely and unconditionally. And this is the book to help us do it.

Created by the beloved self-help author Tanya Carroll Richardson, whose Page-A-Day® calendar A Year of Self-Love has brought the concept of daily self-care to many, Love Notes to My Self is an illustrated collection of more than 200 gently encouraging messages, uplifting affirmations, and mantras.

I can say no, with love, when yes is not an authentic answer. When I say no to some things so I can say yes to others, I’m not only authentic, I become my own savior and superhero . . .

Let me remember the superpower of no, and that sometimes the biggest obstacle to my happiness is what I say yes to.

Whether you read slowly to cover, opened up to a random page each day, or picked up just when you need a lift or a boost of motivation, Love Notes to My Self gives page after page of messages to be meditated upon and absorbed into the mind and spirit—and which, over time, effect meaningful positive change.

Hundreds of loving and affirming meditations, accompanied by concrete action items

From Tanya Carroll Richardson, popular self-help and spiritual author and creator of our Page-A-Day calendar A Year of Self-Love

Fandex Kids
Facts That Fit in Your Hands

- DINOSAURS
  48 Amazing Dinosaurs Inside!

- OCEAN
  49 Sea Creatures Inside!

- BUGS
  49 Incredible Insects, Spiders & More!

It’s Fandex® reinvented, in a fresh, new format designed for curious kids!

The bestselling Fandex decks have been given a complete overhaul to make them just right for children ages 8 and up—the illustrations are brighter and bolder, the die-cuts are simplified to make the cards easier to leaf through, and the text is livelier and age-appropriate. But the unique promise of Fandex is right here—a “facts that fit in your hand” die-cut-card-deck format packed with fascinating images and information about topics kids love.

Like dinosaurs, of course. Inspired by perennial love for the subject and the success of the original Fandex: Dinosaurs, with more than 200,000 in print, Fandex Kids: Dinosaurs features 48 of those amazing creatures. Meet the pigeon-sized Archaeopteryx, which may have been a step in the evolution from dinosaur to bird, and the enormous Brachiosaurus, which could live for 100 years! The deck includes a timeline of the Mesozoic Era, a glossary, and more.

In Fandex Kids: Ocean, kids will discover the oceans’ biological wonders that we’re only now starting to understand. Here’s one: Giant kelp, found in nutrient-rich cool coastal waters, can grow up to two feet every day—that’s right, two feet! There is also information about ocean depth zones and ecosystems, a glossary, and more.

And, of course, bugs. Kids love bugs, and Fandex puts them right in your hands—like the bombardier beetle, which can spray its enemies with a boiling hot fluid, or the tiny, pesky flea with its ability to jump 100 times its size—the equivalent of a human leaping to the top of a 45-story building. And this deck has a special bonus: In “Learning from Nature” sidebars, kids learn how bugs inspire inventions in the fields of medicine, engineering, and even programming.

A Modern Parents’ Guide to Nursery Rhymes
Because It’s Two O’Clock in the Morning and You Can’t Remember “Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star”

Jennifer Griffin

It’s two o’clock in the morning and you’re going to hum your baby back to sleep with... The Simpsons theme song? Help is here: A Modern Parents’ Guide to Nursery Rhymes is the crash course for every new mom or dad.

With its hip approach, witty and thoughtful headnotes, smart packaging, and link to an album of downloadable music, A Modern Parents’ Guide to Nursery Rhymes (previously published as Humpty Who?) is the ultimate curated collection of more than 70 classic poems, songs, lullabies, rounds, and riddles. Once upon a time, every parent knew all about “Little Jack Horner” and “Oh Mr. Sun,” “Little Miss Muffet” and the “Three Blind Mice,” “Mary Had a Little Lamb” and “Shoo Fly.” And now you will, too. Plus, readers will learn the intricate finger ballet called “Itsy Bitsy Spider” in English and Spanish and the classic Spanish-language folk song “De Colores.” In addition, there are explanations for curious children (and grown-ups)—for example, what exactly a “tuffet” is, what goes into a good “pease porridge,” and what else on the bus goes around in addition to the wheels. Suggestions for reciting poetry from the greats—Shakespeare, William Blake, Emily Dickinson; tips on how to improvise; and the secret to an “Om” that just might abate the next munchkin meltdown.

The downloadable album is both great to play for baby and a fun way for parents to learn the music that goes along with many of the rhymes.

- The perfect shower gift
- More than 70 classic rhymes, lullabies, fingerplays, and more, plus a bonus downloadable album of accompanying music
- Revised and updated to include Spanish-language songs and translations

The Very Best Dog
My Life Story as Told by My Human

The Very Best Cat
My Life Story as Told by My Human

As any pet parent knows, life with a new dog or cat is a time of excitement, discovery, and lots of firsts, making a new kitty or puppy deserving of a “baby book” to celebrate and chronicle their milestones.

Introducing The Very Best Dog and The Very Best Cat, two adorable keepsake books to document the day you first welcome a (furry) family member into your home through your third year of adventures and cuddles. Filled with delightful four-color illustrations and plenty of prompts, plus ample space for paw prints and photos—lots of photos—these books are a fun way for both adults and kids to honor their pet and celebrate the bonds they share. There’s room for writing about the important moments—from adoption stories to anniversaries, vacations to adorable mischief-making. Plus You meow to tell me (The Very Best Cat) and The first trick you learned was (The Very Best Dog). And Your thoughts on ear rubs are: (The Very Best Dog).

Perfect for your own pet, or—in this cute package that includes a storage pocket and secure elastic closure—as a gift for any new pet parent.

It’s about time! Two charming keepsake “baby books”—the perfect gift for new dog and cat parents

Jam-packed with prompts and fill-ins, plus delightful illustrations and lots of room for purr-fect photos and paw prints

Includes a pocket for mementos and a secure elastic band closure

Filled with charming and colorful illustrations

Space to paste in your favorite photos of your adorable fur-baby

Plenty of fill-in prompts to document all of the most important moments with your pet

Everything Is Made Out of Magic Collection

In works of pure enchantment that embody words from author Frances Hodgson Burnett and her beloved classic, The Secret Garden, Everything Is Made Out of Magic is a covetable new stationery collection from Flow® and Dutch artist Valesca van Waveren that coordinates beautifully with the puzzle of the same name. It’s the artist’s second, following up on her highly successful All Good Things Are Wild and Free collection, and it delivers all the pleasures of beautiful, colorful, lovingly designed paper products.

Sticker Book

Playing with and using stickers like this is a little bit like sitting in the studio with the artist and handling the work just as she might. What a treat! Includes 28 sheets and 1,000+ stickers to decorate a journal, notebook, envelopes, random notes, and wherever else stickers are used.

- Full-color illustrated stickers
- 28 sticker sheets
- 6" x 8"

Notebook Set

Bring magic with you wherever you go—both literally, in a bag or tote, and figuratively, in how a notebook is always there for jotting down thoughts, journaling, making to-do lists, and more. There are three rules to inspire—Find Magic, Make Magic, and Be Magic—bundled together and featuring one with lined paper, one dotted, and one graph.

- Four different colors repeat throughout; 80 tear-off pages
- 8 1/2" x 7"

Daily Tracker

This tracker is one of the reasons why screens will never replace the tactile pleasures of paper. Even the act of writing down something as quotidian as a to-do list feels special when done on a beautifully designed daily tracker like this. What a great way to keep focused and organized.

- Four different colors repeat throughout; 80 tear-off pages
- 8 1/2" x 7"

Wrapping Paper and Gift Tags

Elevate the entire package with the right wrapping paper. Inside this book are twelve folded sheets of wrapping paper (which unfold to 19" x 26"), featuring pattern themes from the entire group of products. A page of punch-out gift tags completes the book.

- 12 folded sheets of full-color illustrated wrapping paper with 1 sheet of 12 punch-out gift tags
- Paper: 91 lb/319 gsm
- Paper size: 19" x 26"

Stationery Pad

It really is time to bring back the art of sitting, collecting your thoughts, and writing a real letter, on real stationery—that says something about both you the writer, and the person you’re sending it to. Features a pad of 48 lined sheets, 32 cut-and-fold envelopes, and 53 adhesive seals and labels.

- Full-color illustrations throughout; 80 sheets
- 8 1/2" x 11"

Also Available: Everything Is Made Out of Magic 1,000-Piece Puzzle. See page 100.
It’s America’s #1 educational bestseller. Curriculum-based, but infused with a spirit of fun. Vetted by a panel of award-winning teachers, but also embraced by kids and parents because it flat-out works—and entertains, too. Brain Quest opens a world of information and education to kids ages 2 to 12!

Brain Quest thinks outside the box—and puts the fun into schoolwork. Clear, interactive, colorful, and varied, Brain Quest Workbooks are jam-packed with hundreds of curriculum-based activities, exercises, games, and challenges and have a special emphasis on the core competencies of math and language skills. Kids will read, write, draw, solve, connect, color, and create. In addition, each workbook for grades Pre-K through 6 comes with a pull-out poster and more than 150 stickers. Even the posters are keyed into the curriculum—in second grade, children study the 50 states, so the Grade 2 poster shows the entire United States, with all capitals, state flags, and state facts. The fifth and sixth grade books delve into reading comprehension, algebraic thinking, probability and data, research and analysis, metaphor and meaning, geometry, social studies, science, and more.

Stay summer smart—stop summer slide! Part workbook, part game, and part adventure, Summer Brain Quest is a series of summer workbooks designed to make summer learning fun.

In seven titles, covering Pre-K through 6th grade, Summer Brain Quest makes learning a flexible game that can be approached from different directions that suit any reader (educators call this personalized learning). How? Each book has a trifold map with different learning paths that shows progress and gives feedback. Kids feel supported and confident in what they’re doing, and excited to choose their next step. Each title covers math, science, social studies, and English language arts and includes outdoor activities, achievement stickers, a summer reading list, a Brain Quest mini-deck, Summer Brainiac Award, and more.

Meet the volcanologist, who holds on the shadows of its victims. The whirling whirlwinds, who once led an entire Rose Scout troop. And the hoop stoics, who can chose at speeds of up to 50 miles per hour and then, with one string of its venomous tail, cause it to run purple, swell up, and—voila—die.

These and 17 other harshest creatures are among the most fantastical beings in American folklore. Their stories, as narrated by none other than Laura Lee, are hot enjoyed while searing around a campfire.

A book of spine-tingling mythical stories... to be read late at night to an audience willing to be surprised, startled, and kept up wondering what might lurk nearby.

A book that comes alive—as many as 26 Scanimations come alive—as many as Rufus Butler Seder, the creator, artist, filmmaker, and inventor of this new optical toy form, Scanimation. The total of 26 Scanimation images yet:

In this compellingly written and stunningly illustrated book, readers will discover the burst-known and burst-legend, from Augustine to Mother Teresa. Meet Joan of Arc, who led an army when the king’s courage failed. And Peter Claver, who cared for hundreds of thousands of slaves on ships after their voyage as captives. Also included are each saint’s name, location, emblems, feast days, and patronage.

WORLD WITHOUT FISH

Mark Kurlansky; author of "Four Fish"

The illustrated narrative nonfiction account of what is happening to the world's oceans and what kids can do about it. Written in English and Spanish, Hear My Voice/Escucha mi voz uses the picture book format to tell a story about children that demands to be heard. It is a book that is meant to spur you to make you read, to make you want to do something. In it, we hear the voices of dozens of children, ages 5 to 17, who were detained at the border between Mexico and the United States. Taken from actual testimony, these words tell a story of gross maltreatment at the hands of the United States Government. It is also a work of protest: Seven Latino artists amplify the children's voices by illustrating their words. All royalties from the sale of "Hear My Voice/Escucha mi voz" goes to Project Amplify.

For ages 4 and up.

WORLD WITHOUT FISH

Mark Kurlansky; author of "Four Fish"

The illustrated narrative nonfiction account of what is happening to the world's oceans and what kids can do about it. Written in English and Spanish, Hear My Voice/Escucha mi voz uses the picture book format to tell a story about children that demands to be heard. It is a book that is meant to spur you to make you read, to make you want to do something. In it, we hear the voices of dozens of children, ages 5 to 17, who were detained at the border between Mexico and the United States. Taken from actual testimony, these words tell a story of gross maltreatment at the hands of the United States Government. It is also a work of protest: Seven Latino artists amplify the children's voices by illustrating their words. All royalties from the sale of "Hear My Voice/Escucha mi voz" goes to Project Amplify.

For ages 4 and up.

For more information on "Hear My Voice/Escucha mi voz," please see the Atlas Obscura online store.

You’re not alone! You’re not the first kid who ever tripped and fell in public. It’s spilled water on your pants so it looked...you know! Laugh-out-loud funny yet enormously compassionate, So Embarrassing is a comic-style narrative with vignettes and stories about all the things that make kids feel awkward and embarrassed. It’s funny, it’s sympathetic, and it’s also filled with jokes, science facts (what happens when we blush, for example), tips for recovering quickly, and practical advice, like what to say to a total embarrassment friend.

SPY ON HISTORY®
Now in paperback, this interactive series plunges young readers into the heroic exploits of little-known spies who helped change the course of history. In Mary Bowser, readers discover that the Confederate president’s Black servant was actually a Union spy who used her photographic memory to “steal” top-secret documents. Victor Dowd follows a group of artists and engineers who used props and sound effects to undermine the Nazis in World War II. Meet Anna Strong, whose bravery and ingenuity influenced America’s fight for independence. Each title includes spycraft tools that readers use to solve a mystery hidden in the book’s illustrations.

The Miniature Book of Miniature Golf

This duffer’s dictionary is a true original. A compelling activity for cravers and art lovers, doodlers, and colorers of all ages. The book contains everything you need to create miniatures, full-color “paintings.” The original images are rendered in low-poly, computer graphics-style song geometry, polygons shaped to create a 3-D effect. As you turn the page, each template is divided into dozens of spaces, each with a number that corresponds to a particular sticker. Find the sticker, peel it, and place it in the right space. Add the next, and the next, and the next— it’s an array that’s utterly absorbing, both in the pleasure of seeing and sticking and the growing satisfaction of watching a “painting” come to life, emerging from a flat black-and-white illustration to a dazzling image with color, body, and spirit.

ALL GOOD THINGS ARE WILD & FREE
Illustrated by Lotte Dirks
From American artist Sarah Walsh comes this whimsical tribute to the power of the imagination and its ability to take you anywhere and everywhere. What is real, beyond the woman and the book? Visions, hell, cat-ears, and yet strutting—a blue and white zebra, a sky that you can't imagine in any other. A three-headed dragon, carved blade at the ready, as a swirl of fire and ice. Follow her, pace by pace, and imagine yourself in a world transformed.

Home is where the heart is in this puzzle from the Dutch artist Lotte Dirks, who revels in her love for muscle, tendon, and sinew in the human body, and its ability to take us anywhere and everywhere. A three-headed dragon, carved blade at the ready, as a swirl of fire and ice. Follow her, pace by pace, and imagine yourself in a world transformed.

DARE TO DREAM
Illustrated by Sarah Walsh
For every brave soul who says yes to all the gong for drinks, dating of any kind, waiting a cowboy happy birthday (ifon-thats-cake- involved)—here comes Blurt with honest advice on how to line your life up, in your house, in your pants. The creator of cartoonist and stand-up comic Mo Walsh, Blurt is the awkward, self-deprecating, small-town artist who always—always—gives you permission to choose the couch over the gym. Cat not included.

BONES VALLEJO: FEARLESS ROVER
Illustrated by Bora Vallejo
Bora Vallejo, America’s premier fantasy artist, begins this puzzle offering, no matter what your state of mind… absorbing and time-forgetting pleasures that a jigsaw puzzle offers, no matter what your state of mind…

FREE TO JUST BE
Illustrated by Rosapia Fris
In her free and vibrant painting, the Dutch-Egyptian artist Rosapia Fris explores the Cairo streets of her childhood. A work that verges on the abstract, with its patterned fabric and pink-washed walls, the puzzle invites us pace by pace to feel the brush and see of those memories, to delight in the visual splashes of color, and to see a city turning with life and mystery.

HOME SWEET HOME
Illustrated by Lotte Dirks
Home is where the heart is in this puzzle from the Dutch artist Lotte Dirks, who revels in her love for everything that grows and flourishes. As you pace it together, you may find your imagination drifting down a winding country lane, to a white picket fence with an open gate, to a yard where the flowers bloom and chickens range freely, to a special place where you are always welcome…

LET THE SUN SHINE IN
Illustrated by Anna Makkhold
Here comes the sun! Sunsets are an exquisite pleasure from the American artist Anna Makkhold, this puzzle celebrates the simple splashing art of the everyday: an empty Mediterranean olives oil tin filled with a handful of bright flowers in bloom. But with its visual challenges, like the blue patroned sarong, it will draw you, pace by pace, ever deeper into a mindful journey of finding beauty.

HIGH ART: A SOTYENDER IN HIS SHOP
Inspired by Petrus Christus
Calibre’s exquisite masterpieces reimagined as if the artists and their subjects lurched their meal—like thin Paris that rage—’The Goldsmith in His Shop’ as a slumbering, while serving faithful to the luminous anonymity of a typical of Northern Renaissance painting. Dry touch, and it appears the attention-absorbing and time-forgetting pleasures that a jigsaw puzzle offers, no matter what your state of mind…

LOVE UNCENSORED
How many ways can you say “I love you”? Well, at least, “I want you.” Get creative—and maybe a little naughty—with Love Uncensored, a collection of 60 lush, color, tear-out postcards. Each card is an inspired marriage of retro art and contemporary arts, pairing nostalgic pop art images with thoughtfully written sentiments about love and romance.

DIRTY PRODUCE
MacNair
Don’t squeeze the front—she prefers to do it themselves! In this charming book, the artist and illustrator MacNair shows us how to live your life at home, in sweat pants. The genius in these full-color illustrations is in the recognizably human expressions revealed. That look on the “face” of an orange getting picked for action.

EVERYTHING IS THE WORST
A Book for People Who Just Can’t
Enough with the happiness books. Sometimes, can you just let things go? Sometimes you just don’t want to hear one more person tell you to have a great day! Because you probably much better everyone, like, a tongue-in-cheek gift of anti-inspiration filled with gorgeously hand-lettered expressions revealing what most of us really know, deep in our hearts, to be true. We’ve said nothing even a little bit worse.

Siblings; and the best diet... 128 129

Polly Moore, PhD

First-year babies can be a bit unpredictable, but they can also be very predictable. For example, they love the special baby book that shows how to raise your first tooth from birth to age one with love, respect, insight, and a surprising sense of calm. Above all, how to care for your baby. A baby book like no other. First time, because it’s a guide to parenting the toddler is not to raising an inquisitive learner... 125,000 copies in print.

NEW BOOK

BODY KINDNESS

Transform your Health from the Inside Out—and Never Say Diet Again

Rebecca Smetanich, PhD

Imagine a graph with two lines. One line tracks the calorie diet—where you feel hungry. The other tracks how you feel about your body. For millions of women these lines never intersect, but it does not have to be that way. Body Kindness is a loving, practical, inspiring, and visually lively book that shows how to change your health habits using small incremental alterations to bring together those lines. A holistic program filled with motivations, health tips, inspirational stories, and more, it’s the anti-diet book.

ONE SMALL STEP CAN CHANGE YOUR LIFE

The Kaizen Why

Robert Maurer, PhD

The essential guide to the Kaizens—when making great and lasting change through small, steady steps—for anyone who wants to lose weight, quit smoking, inspire a team, write a novel, meet new people, and more. 202,000 copies in print.

SEE YOUR WAY TO MINDFULNESS

Ideas and Inspiration to Open Your Mind

David Schiffer

In a world filled with distraction, seeing mindfully is like meditation, a way to be present, put things in perspective, and find calm by focusing on what’s directly in front of us. This full-color illustrated book from the bestselling author of The Little Zen color illustrated book front of us mindfully is like distraction, seeing as a practice—like this full-color, thought-provoking collection of drawn illustrations, and kwoh uses brief writings to create a “grief club.” Janine learned from others in the late 20s—with what she now calls “grief club.”

RETURNS POLICY (RETURNABLE CUSTOMERS ONLY)

Books and calendars are fully returnable in resalable condition (no price stickers). NO GAYLORDS/SHROUDS. NO RETURN AUTHORIZATION IS REQUIRED. Customer pays all freight and handling costs on return shipments. Please include your account number on chargeback and packing list to ensure that credit will be issued correctly to your account. Account numbers can be found on your statement, packing list, or any invoice.

Workman Publishing will not be responsible for any products that are not distributed by Workman.

Return Credit: Calendar returns will be credited at original purchase price. Book returns will be credited at the retailer's highest earned discount. Returns from customers with both warehousing and non-warehousing accounts will be credited at a blended discount factoring in both types of sales to both accounts. Returns of more than one (1) carton should be labeled, for example, 1 of 3, 2 of 3, etc.

Send books along with packing slip to: Workman Publishing Co., Inc., c/o RR Donnelley, 677 Brighton Beach Road, Menasha, WI 54952. Returns sent to any other location will be refused.

CLAIMS

All claims for shortages, shipping issues, and/or damaged items must be made within 45 days of receipt or they will not be honored.

NONRECEIPT

All claims for nonreceipt and/or requests for Proof of Delivery (POD) must be made within 45 days of receipt of statement or they will not be honored.

INTERNATIONAL

All terms mentioned herein pertain to domestic sales accounts only. Please contact appropriate international representative, listed on inside front cover, for terms.

STOP ORDERS—BOOKSELLERS

Workman's Single Title Order Plan (STOP) enables booksellers to order up to four items at a 40% discount. Please add $4.75 to cover postage and handling for the first item and 50 cents for each additional item. In order to qualify for STOP discount, booksellers must prepay their order.

MAIL-ORDER CATALOGS, PREMIUM SALES, AND SPECIAL SALES

Contact our Special Sales department for further information on calendars for use in mail-order catalogs, as giveaways, and for fundraisers. Quotations are also available for custom printings of calendars and books.

CONSUMER ORDERS

Consumers who are unable to obtain our merchandise locally may order by mail at full list price or on our website, workman.com. Full payment must accompany your order. Please add $4.75 to cover postage and handling for the first item and 50 cents for each additional item. For orders shipping to Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico, please call for shipping cost. Local sales tax must also be paid on purchases made in the following states: CA, MA, MI, MN, NC, NY, OR, TX & WA.
Have a Happy Spring!
