Certificate

This is to certify that Chantal Verheijden, born June 15, 1998 actively participated from January 20, 2020 to January 31, 2020 (2 weeks) in our volunteer and cultural program in Cambodia.

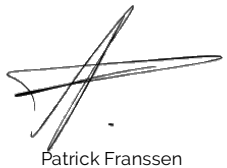

The Green Lion organizes a wide variety of volunteer programs that help promote inter-cultural learning, community development and environmental conservation.

During this duration, she interacted with the local population and worked closely with local staff as well as with volunteers from several other nations towards the success of the project. Specifically she participated in the following programs:

- Greenway School

She contributed significantly in terms of knowledge, experience and commitment during the execution of the project. It was a pleasure having her participate on our program and we can recommend her as a participant in your organization's activities.

Sincerely,
