 Peru - Cajamarca

Get up close and personal with the local pre-schoolers of rural Peru and help out with daily activities around their kindergarten!

Aside from helping out in the day-to-day operations you will also be asked to teach the children English through fun activities and make their learning experience enjoyable and beneficial. The children are between 2-4 years old and are eager to learn and interact with you!

Program Description

Our main area of work will be in Kindergartens around Cajamarca, all are government run with limited funds in Baños del Inca and one of seven in total in the Cajamarca area targeting low-income families who cannot afford childcare.

You can expect your school to have around 10-15 children. Depending on the community's needs, you may be assigned to the other kindergartens in the area that need your assistance.

Your role will involve looking after the children, managing classes, assisting local staff with caretaking, playing games, guiding activities whilst teaching them basic English along the way.

All participants must have a sense of initiative and understand that teachers at the project might not speak the same language
