Accommodation & Food

About the Accommodation

During your time in the program, you will stay at the homestay in the village. The accommodation is an original wooden Khmer-style house. Please note that the toilets are squatting toilets (proven to be a healthier alternative!). This is traditional Cambodian living!

Food Arrangements

Basic, home cooked, local style dishes can be expected for all your daily meals.

Facilities

This is a remote area of Cambodia and you will not find ATMs, so please make sure you have enough money with you, although you will not need much during your stay here.

Activities & Events

No scheduled activities outside the program.

Sights & Surroundings

Explore the massive temple of Banteay Chhmar, along with its satellite shrines and reservoir (baray), comprises one of the most important and least understood archaeological complexes from Cambodia's Angkor period.

There are nine other, smaller temples around the Banteay Chhmar temple. They all are mostly hidden in the forest and covered with small bushes and trees because of the lack of conservation from the local people and authorities.
