NEWS & UPDATES

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We hope everyone had a very Merry and blessed Christmas with good food, fun, and family...sprinkled with a little team roping here and there!

Thank you to all of you who attended the Finale. Coming off another record breaking run in Las Vegas, we are amazed and proud of the growth of the last 17 years. A full introduction of the 17th batch of Finale winners, that will be forever added to the WSTR Hall of Champions, will be featured in the February issue. This month, it is all about the new year and some new changes to the formats of the Ariat World Series of Team Roping

#7 Qualifier Change

Throughout 2023 we have seen that teams in the #7 divisions have struggled to catch four steers. This has prompted our decision to make this division a three-head average at all 2024 WSTR Qualifiers. Ropers in the #7 have really been missing out on the full "Short-Go" experience. In many instances, 0-10 teams qualify to the short go taking away from the excitement and the thrill for the teams who make it. In addition, this division has consistently paid on two head. Taking all these factors into consideration, we believe a three-head average will provide a much better and more competitive experience for the #7 ropers. Of course, the #7 at the Ariat WSTR Finale will remain a four-steer with everyone guaranteed 3 full rounds.

Qualifier Entry Fee Options

Last month we recognized "The Trail Ahead" for Troy Shelley, one of our very first roping producers. He spoke of the financial difficulties team roping producers are facing, in particular, the low margins. Beginning in 1990 USTRC introduced the $150/roper entry price with a 33% stock charge. WSTR came along 17 years ago with the same entry fee at 20% stock charge. That ratio has remained the same for the last 17 years. Holding entry fees for 33 years has been amazing especially since the cost of putting on events has steadily increased and skyrocketed over the last two years. We have touched on the cost increases in freight, diesel, steers, labor, and feed in numerous prior articles but there are a lot of other costs associated with a good quality production.

The bottom line is this business must be as fair to the ones producing it as it is to the ones roping. If it is not a win-win then the model will eventually fail. For these reasons ropers will notice some slight changes in the entry fee options at WSTR events. Ropers have lots of choices and can choose to enter what they like, but at the same time we need to allow our contractors the flexibility to offer formats that give them opportunities to continue to produce good quality events.

After ample consideration and input from WSTR producers and ropers the program will provide some flexibility in its formats. Beginning in January 2024 producers will have the option of $200/Roper fees at 80% payback or, remaining at the $150/Roper entry fee and changing the payback percentage to 75%, or a mixture of the two. This will allow producers to decide what is most compatible in their area, and which format will best suit their clientele. We are confident that these changes will allow our producers to continue to provide a high standard of WSTR quality events. Refer to the schedule at WSTRoping.com to view each ad so that you know in advance which formats will be offered. Please note that any entry fee of $200 or more will remain at 80% payback.

To illustrate, payout comparisons are below sampling the top three placings with 200 teams.

	$200/ROPER - 80% PAYBACK	$150/ROPER - 80% PAYBACK	$150/ROPER - 75% PAYBACK
1 ST	$16,380 TM	$12,220 TM	$11,440 TM
2 ND	$11,340 TM	$8,460 TM	$7,920 TM
3 RD	$8,820 TM	$6,580 TM	$6,160 TM

Welcome to 2024 Team Ropers!

Happy New Year to the fastest growing contingency in the western discipline! Each year, as I'm sure you do with your own business, we glance in the rearview mirror and weigh out the highs and lows from the previous year. The goal is always to build on our strengths and leverage the past year of knowledge to push our expectations to the next level. You USTRC ropers have allowed us to do exactly that, and we are excited to see what 2024 has in store.

On the day to day with the USTRC Signature Series events, not much is going to change. Fees will remain the same and the USTRC will continue to work with producers from different geographical locations to ensure that the local roping customer is top of mind. We realize that what may be good for one region of ropers, may need to be tweaked a little to fit in an entirely different roping market. This year producers will have an opportunity to try one higher fee roping per weekend if they so choose.

After the great success of the Key Card Advantage ropings during the WSTR Finale in Vegas last month, many producers and ropers asked if they could put on a variation of those ropings at certain USTRC events throughout the year. The answer is Yes! Now, producers will have the option of having a Key Card Advantage roping in the division of their choice.

Initially, the fee structure will be $250/roper for Key Card or Key Card Max members and $350 for standard USTRC members. The events will pay back 80%.

For those of you on the fence about a Key Card membership, here's the simple truth: In two Advantage entries you will save enough to cover the Key Card cost. For those who are interested in the Key Card Max, you get the entry savings plus all of your USTRC National Finals of Team Roping runs delivered with Run Delivery, the Live Stream, a subscription to Roping.com and a membership to the best roadside assistance in the world for ropers -US Roper. Not to mention the early entry discounts for the USTRC Finals! Either option pays for itself almost immediately if you are an avid roper.

Speaking of avid ropers, all of you parents and young guns under 21 remember you have to have ten entries within a few months prior to entering the USTRC NFTR this April. Make sure and go out and get those entries under your belt before trying to enter Fort Worth.

Once again, Happy New Year team ropers. We will see you at the next one.

NEWS

In an effort for final preparations for NTRL Finals, below are a few important items to remember when getting ready to rope at the biggest and greatest roping east of the Mississippi!

- ☑ Be sure to update your Health and Coggins papers for your horses. It is MANDATORY to have this paperwork in order to enter and/or leave the state of Florida.
- ☑ Stall reservations are different this year. Be sure to see the form at the bottom of page 2 for all the information concerning stall and RV reservations. If you want to make last minute reservations, please call Pam between 9:00am and 5:00pm EST, Monday through Friday.
- ☑ Remember, even if you do not have any Shoot-Outs, you CAN still rope at the NTRL Finals!

- ☑ This year every roper gets 3 shoot outs for showing up. These are not paid Shootouts, it's an opportunity to rope in a shootout roping.
- ☑ You can rope in any of the Preliminary ropings.
- ☑ You can rope in the Shootout Ropings if your partner has a Shootout spot. Only 1 member of a team has to have a Shootout.
- ☑ You can rope in any of the Specialty Ropings: Century, Ladies Only, #7.
- ☑ If you finish in the top 10% of a Preliminary Roping, you are eligible to enter the Shootout
- ☑ Be prepared to win a lot of Cash and Prizes.
- ☑ Most importantly, HAVE FUN!!

SEE YA AT A ROPING SOON!
