WHERE ROPES MEET ROOTS: THE HEART OF TEAM ROPING

Before the bright lights and the big Ariat WSTR Finale checks are written, ropers with their families loaded their trailers and made their way to the next qualification roping with hopes of earning their way to Vegas. For some, it was a short drive down a country road. For others, it's a thousand miles and a truck full of dreams.

And then, back home to continue the dream; dirt arenas and long days under open skies in the practice pen. Fathers teaching sons to handle a rope, daughters learning to back a horse into the box, and neighbors who showed up just because it's what folks do. Why does this matter? In a time when the world feels louder and faster than ever, we still find ourselves longing for the kind of values that built the "old west," when a person's word meant something, and a handshake carried the weight of a contract. Back not so long ago, you earned what you had. You showed up, worked hard, and didn't expect life to hand you anything. Those weren't just cowboy values; they were human ones. And maybe that's why team roping still feels like coming home. It reminds us that integrity, effort, and honor never go out of style – it's a way of life.

Behind every Finale competitor is a story: a ranch hand who saved all year for an entry fee, a young couple who trained together after work, a retired legacy roper who still ropes because he can't imagine life without it. The executive who needs a connection to the past. What happens inside the arena matters, but it's what happens outside the arena that tells the real story and perhaps the two capture the magic during the ten days at the Finale. At its core, team roping is about connection, horse to rider, partner to partner, community to tradition. Every loop thrown is a nod to the generations who came before.

The payouts and the incredible prizes may grab attention, but they're not the only point. The true prize is knowing you gave it your all. That you stood shoulder-to-shoulder with your partner and represented the kind of spirit that keeps the Western way alive.

Because when the dust settles, the real story of roping isn't just told in checks or headlines. I encourage you to read through the Finale Program and the stories of last year's winners. How their lives' have been impacted but all shared with a common theme, one of gratitude. It's told in the bonds between people and in the simple, unchanging truth that the rope doesn't just catch cattle, it connects hearts.

We hope to see you at the Finale or somewhere at the next qualification event.

AMERICA'S COWBOY SPORT

Dear Ropers,

December finds us right in the thick of the Holiday Season. We hope you had wonderful Thanksgiving filled with food, family, and some team roping fun! The path to the USTRC Finals begins now for all of our ropers under 21, remember that your entries began counting towards the 10 entry rule on November 28th. Before you are eligible to enter the finals you must have at least 10 entries at any GEMS events. We backed up the start date and are including all GEMS events this year to make it as easy as possible for our young ropers anywhere in the country to meet that eligibility requirement. You must have already acquired your 10 entries and meet all timelines to receive any entry discounts, so we encourage you to get out there and get roping! Check out USTRC.com for our upcoming schedule and to map out your roping calendar for the Holiday break.

With the USTRC season more than halfway gone, we are seeing some great races in the Cinch Ladies and Resistol Junior Championship standings. While we can see some definite front runners, there is still plenty of time to make your move up the leader board! Head to the website to see where you stack up against your peers all across the country.

We are just about four months from the Cinch National Finals of Team Roping in Ft. Worth, Texas and preparations are already well underway to make this year's Finals better than ever for ropers who make the trip to Cowtown. 2026 will feature an expanded lineup of Key Card Advantage qualifiers which were a hit last year. Key Card members will receive exclusive entry discounts to these divisions, as well as all of our Shootouts, assuming entry deadlines are met. Be on the lookout in the coming months for the full US Finals schedule and information on all of the entry deadlines.

With 2026 memberships already on sale, make sure you have been to USTRC.com to explore the benefits of a Key Card or Key Card Max. These memberships can quickly pay for themselves when you consider the discounts you will receive at the USTRC Finals. In addition, Key Card Max members receive access to the great content at Roping.com, US Roper 24-hour roadside assistance, Live-Streaming, and Run-Delivery bringing the action right to your phone!

As the year comes to a close, we want to say a big thank you to our wonderful members across the country. We are America's Cowboy Sport, and you are the backbone of this special organization. In 2026, USTRC will continue to strive to provide our ropers and their families the very best place to compete, and a way to instill our values, work ethic, and passion in the next generation.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

John Johnson

NTRL NEWS

It's time to start planning for the NTRL National Finals—January 21-25, 2026! We are praying for great Florida weather for this event! We have a 3 page ad in this issue of The Team Roping Journal with all the format details, but below are a few things to remember for the trip!

- ☑ Be sure to update your Health and Coggins papers for your horses. It is MANDATORY to have this paperwork in order to enter and leave the state of Florida with livestock!
- ☑ Stall and RV reservations have been restructured. Facilities are going to weekly rates for large events and Finals! We are NOT taking reservations for Barn A as in the past. All barns have the same advantage of being close to one of the 3 arenas. We will have a few drive up, nightly options available (but not for reservation). Please see the ad for all the details!

- ☑ If you call for a reservation, please call Pam during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 9:00am to 5:00pm EST at 423-612-8414. Reservations open December 1 thru 19. Then reopen Jan 5!

We will be having the South Georgia Super Qualifier in Perry, Georgia, January 2-4, 2026! See all of our ads in The Team Roping Journal, as well as our website and Facebook!!

SEE YA AT A ROPING SOON!
