When I was broken and lonely You gave me peace that surpasses all understanding
Your love is so extravagant absolutely commanding
That every part of me is surrendered and still standing
The Rock of my salvation Your grace is always expanding
I'm captivated Can't evade it I'm swimming in grace
And I deserved only death but You stepped into my place
You've been my strength in the struggle my peace in the pain
Lord You turn my mountains to valleys and You broke every chain
