Carrie Lohr
Carrie Lohr completed her seventh season as the head women’s basketball coach at Wayne State University during the 2017-18 academic year.
In just seven seasons at the helm of the Warrior women’s basketball program, Lohr has accumulated 119 wins, second all-time in WSU history and is the only coach with five consecutive double-digit win totals. She was also the fastest to reach the century mark.
The 2017-18 team earned three All-GLIAC selections. Senior Shannon Wilson was named to the conference’s First Team, with sophomore Nastassja Chambers earning Second Team honors and junior Ja’Nae Williams being voted to the All-GLIAC Defensive Team. WSU also more than doubled its win total from the previous season, and hosted a GLIAC Tournament contest.
During the 2014-15 campaign, Lohr led the Warriors to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament along with tying the school record for wins in a season (23). It marked the third consecutive year, WSU had won at least 22 games. Wayne State had a 10-game winning streak
(Dec. 15-Jan. 22) along with claiming the GLIAC South Division title with an 18-4 league ledger.
The 18 conference wins were the most in program history.

Karen Lafata
Karen Lafata will begin her eighth year as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Wayne State University during the 2018-19 academic year.
She joined the Warrior coaching staff in May 2011 after serving the previous 13 years (1998-2011) as the head coach at Schoolcraft Community College. She brought 33 years of head coaching experience to the Warrior program having spent two years at Macomb Community College (1996-98) following 18 years in the high school ranks.
Lafata compiled a 326-77 record (80.9 winning percentage) during her tenure with the Ocelots, which included eight conference titles including her last five seasons where SCC registered an 83-3 league ledger. Her SCC squads were ranked in the top 10 nationally nine times including a runner-up finish at the 2009 NCAA Division II national tournament.
She earned six MCCAA (Michigan Community College Athletic Association) State Coach of the Year awards including each of her last four campaigns at Schoolcraft. Her first two awards were received in 2002 and 2005.
A 2011 inductee into the Macomb County Coaches Hall of Fame, Lafata was also inducted into the USSSA (United States Sports Specialty Association) Hall of Fame in 2004.

Joel Whymer
Joel Whymer joined the Wayne State University athletic staff as an assistant women’s basketball coach as well as junior varsity head coach in August 2015. He enters his fourth year with the Warriors in the fall of 2018.
In his three seasons at WSU, there has been 18 Academic All-GLIAC honorees, while his J.V.
team has a 14-1 mark over the last two years.
In his initial season (2015-16) with the Warriors, WSU had just six returning letterwinners, and struggled in close games losing seven contests by eight points or less, plus another two matches that went into double overtime. The team did produce five Academic All-GLIAC recipients including three on the GLIAC All-Academic Excellence squad. The following year (2016-17), Wayne State had four student-athletes selected to the GLIAC All-Academic Teams.
This past year (2017-18), WSU had nine GLIAC All-Academic honorees, including six on the GLIAC
All-Academic Excellence Team. In addition, the Warriors had three All-GLIAC recipients.
Whymer came to WSU after serving the previous year (2014-15) as the head coach at St Clair County Community College (SC4) where he led the Skippers to a 25-6 overall record.
