A Settlement has been reached with Huuuge, Inc. (“Huuuge” or “Defendant”) in a class action lawsuit alleging that Huuuge Casino and Billionaire Casino (the “Applications”) engaged in false and deceptive advertising and fall within the definition of an illegal gambling game under California Law. The Defendant denies that the Applications constitute or constituted illegal gambling or are otherwise illegal, that any aspect of the Applications’ operation constituted unfair business practices, or that Defendant or any Released Party engaged in any inappropriate advertising or otherwise violated any laws whatsoever.

The lawsuit is captioned Jeremiah Ballew, et al. v. Huuuge, Inc., Case No. 2:23-cv-04324-GW-AGR, pending in the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMNT PROVIDE?

Each Settlement Class Member who or which does not timely and properly opt out of the Settlement, shall automatically receive at least 375 Virtual Diamonds to be distributed to a player identification number for that person in one of the Applications or split in some manner between the Applications, in Defendant’s sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, each Settlement Class Member who or which does not timely and properly opt out, will receive at least a total of 375 Virtual Diamonds counting all Virtual Diamonds distributed to that Settlement Class Member in either of the Applications. Defendant has agreed to distribute no less than a total of Four Hundred Twelve Million Five Hundred Thousand (412,500,000) Virtual Diamonds to Settlement Class Members.

The Virtual Diamonds do not have an expiration date. Defendant shall not cancel the Virtual Diamonds or revert the Virtual Diamonds back to Defendant.
