

Digging Deeper into the Message

Read Matthew 22:1-14

Who do each of the following characters from the parable represent in real life?

- The King-
- The King's son-
- The wedding guests who rejected the invitation-
- The servants who invited the bad wedding guests-
- The guests who came to the wedding-
- The guest who came, but wasn't dressed appropriately-

What happened to the guest who wasn't dressed appropriately?

What does this parable mean?

How can you apply this parable to your life today?

This week's sermon

RSVP

MATTHEW 22:1-14

Throughout the history of man, God has been inviting and collecting people into His church. Jesus died to pay for the sins of His Bride. One day, Jesus will return to earth and separate His faithful ones out of the rest and initiate an age of joy with a wedding banquet.

The servants who invited the people to the banquet are the prophets of the Old Testament, crying out to Israel to repent and return to their God.

We can happily invite everyone we meet to be saved, knowing that Jesus died for everyone and that our invitation is real. All who call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Digging Deeper into the Message

Read Matthew 22:1-14

Who do each of the following characters from the parable represent in real life?

- The King-
- The King's son-
- The wedding guests who rejected the invitation-
- The servants who invited the bad wedding guests-
- The guests who came to the wedding-
- The guest who came, but wasn't dressed appropriately-

What happened to the guest who wasn't dressed appropriately?

What does this parable mean?

How can you apply this parable to your life today?

This week's sermon

RSVP

MATTHEW 22:1-14

Throughout the history of man, God has been inviting and collecting people into His church. Jesus died to pay for the sins of His Bride. One day, Jesus will return to earth and separate His faithful ones out of the rest and initiate an age of joy with a wedding banquet.

The servants who invited the people to the banquet are the prophets of the Old Testament, crying out to Israel to repent and return to their God.

We can happily invite everyone we meet to be saved, knowing that Jesus died for everyone and that our invitation is real. All who call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.