

SCITUATE HARBOR YACHT CLUB

Organized 1940

Welcome to the Scituate Harbor Yacht Club membership application process. Membership is generally available to those who have demonstrated interest in participating and promoting the development of yachting in all its aspects, including, without limitation, cruising, angling and racing.

The Membership Committee and the Board will require substantial proof from all new membership applicants a demonstration of past yachting experience and participation an intent to continue that experience and intention to actively participate in the club.

Membership Application Requirements

- 1) Application must be filled out completely with all requirements met.
- 2) The application for membership must be accompanied by letters from two sponsors, each of whom must be a full member in good standing.
- 3) In order for the application for membership to remain in the applicant pool, the applicant must continue to have sponsors who remain full members in good standing. The applicant is solely responsible for this ongoing requirement.
- 4) Upon request, sponsors must arrange for the introduction of candidates to the admissions committee.
- 5) The complete application for membership with the required letters of recommendation must be postmarked by the United States Postal Service on or before March 1st and mailed to:
