

UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY VISIT TO NANTUCKET

Friday, July 13 & Saturday, July 14
Come Join Us!

US Naval Academy Midshipmen onboard Navy 44

HEAR ABOUT LIFE AS A NAVAL ACADEMY MIDSHIPMAN!

This weekend the Nantucket community welcomes the U.S. Naval Academy Sailing Squadron on their visit to the island Friday, July 13, and Saturday, July 14. They will be sailing from Annapolis, Maryland on five 44-foot sail training vessels. These young women and men are participating in an offshore professional development program designed to provide experience in navigation, seamanship, and small unit leadership responsibilities.

We encourage you, your family and friends to take this unique opportunity to meet these outstanding young Naval Academy sailors during their visit to Nantucket, and learn firsthand about life as a Naval Academy midshipman at the following events:

FRIDAY, JULY 13 FROM 3:00 - 4:00 P.M.

Presentation and Q & A at the Nantucket Boys and Girls Club

SATURDAY, JULY 14 FROM 5:00-6:00 P.M.

Presentation and Q & A at the Nantucket Atheneum's Great Hall

SATURDAY, JULY 14 FROM 1:00-4:00 P.M.

*Touring, comment, and conversation on Navy 44 boats,
Brant Point Coast Guard Station Pier, 10 Easton St.*