It is the third of three song settings from Sir Walter Scott's poem Lady of the Lake, itself written in 1810. Its proper name is Ellen's Song, named after the heroine of Scott's poem, Ellen Douglas. It has been suggested that opening two words to the original song may have led to the idea that it has arranged the full text of the Roman Catholic prayer. Now it is most often made this last adaptation, thus leading to the misconception that it was originally set with a prayer in mind. Even in Schubert's own short life, he was only thirty-one when he died, this song was considered a masterpiece. It gained more popularity when it was used in the 1940s Walt Disney movie Fantasia, where its beauty and simplicity offered calm and respite after the stormy strains of Mussorgsky's Night on Bare Mountain. To view Ave Maria ((Euphonium Part) click here in the Category: SOLOS - Euphonium Composer: Kevin Bell Duration: 4 10 Difficulties: Intermediate Euphonium feature brass band, and good choice to show talent bands Euphonium player, Babylon opens with a driving 3/4 time section run by trombones and percussion. The Euphonium solo begins with a flowing quaver melody that is rhythmically supported by the entire band, and builds up to the moment when the pace changes. Go to the slower 4/4 time section to show the quality of euphonium lyrical. This slower middle section continues to build covers throughout the band until the lead singer takes over and gives us back to opening 3/4 again, gaining momentum &lt;/12131516&gt;furious climax. A lively solo feature with a band accompaniment that is not too demanding. To view Babylon click here are 1762 units.
