THE ITINERARY IN DETAIL

1:00 PM — Departure Hôtel Carlton Cannes

The group boards the bus at the Carlton for the drive up into the hills above Cannes, with a professional guide on hand throughout the afternoon to share the history of the villages and the region's centuries-old perfume tradition.

1:30 PM — Lunch L'Amandier, Mougins

Lunch is served at L'Amandier, a well-loved restaurant in the heart of Mougins, the picturesque hilltop village that has drawn artists for generations — Pablo Picasso spent his final years here, and the village remains closely associated with gastronomy and the arts. Guests enjoy authentic Provençal cuisine on a shaded terrace within the old village walls.

2:30 PM — Transfer To Grasse

After lunch, the group re-boards the bus for the short drive to Grasse, perched in the hills above Cannes and celebrated as the world capital of perfume, a title recognised by UNESCO for the town's exceptional expertise in fragrance-making, cultivated here since the 16th century.

3:00 PM — Fragonard Factory A Visit to a Historic Perfume House

The guide leads the group to the Fragonard perfumery, one of Grasse's oldest and most celebrated fragrance houses, founded in 1926. A mini scented workshop will be arranged for guests + a guided tour of the historic factory reveals the traditional methods of perfume-making — distillation, extraction and the delicate art of the 'nose' — that have made Grasse famous the world over. The visit lasts approximately 30 minutes.

4:00 PM — Boutique Time for Fragrant Souvenirs

Following the tour, guests are invited to browse the adjoining factory boutique, with perfumes, soaps and scented gifts crafted in Grasse — a lovely opportunity to take home a piece of Provence before the return journey.

4:30 PM — Return Back to Hôtel Carlton

The bus departs Grasse for the drive back down to the coast, bringing to a close an afternoon that paired the flavours of Provence with the age-old art of perfume.

Discover Saint-Honorat Island

20 persons minimum- 150 persons maximum

A Boat Excursion to the Lérins Abbey & its Monastic Vineyards

Walking Difficulty: ★★★★★ (2/5)

Easy walk at a gentle pace on unpaved island paths, with some uneven, rocky shoreline sections; no significant climbs.

Thursday, June 10, 2027 • Group of 150 guests • Departure from Hôtel Carlton Cannes at 1:00 PM by bus

Just a short ferry ride from the bustle of the Croisette lies one of the most unexpected and peaceful destinations on the French Riviera: Saint-Honorat, a small monastic island still home to a community of Cistercian monks, who have cultivated its vines since the Middle Ages. This excursion combines a scenic sea crossing with a wine tasting among the vineyards, a plate of monastery specialities, and a leisurely visit of the island's chapels and shoreline — a rare moment of quiet, timeless beauty away from the mainland.

PROGRAMME AT A GLANCE

2:20 PM	Ferry departure from the Port of Cannes to Saint-Honorat Island (crossing: 20 minutes)
2:40 PM	Arrival and disembarkation on Saint-Honorat Island
3:00 PM	Wine tasting in the monastery vineyards, with a lunch of local specialities (approx. 40 minutes)

5:30 PM	Return ferry departure from Saint-Honorat to the Port of Cannes
6:00 PM	Arrival at the Port of Cannes

THE ITINERARY IN DETAIL

1:00 PM — Departure Hôtel Carlton Cannes

The group boards private coaches at the Carlton for the short transfer to the Port of Cannes, escorted throughout the afternoon by a professional guide.

2:20 PM — Ferry Crossing Port of Cannes to Saint-Honorat

From the Port of Cannes, a ferry carries the group across the sparkling waters of the Bay of Cannes to Saint-Honorat, the smaller and more secluded of the two Lérins Islands. The crossing takes around 20 minutes, offering fine views back over Cannes, Le Suquet and the coastline.

2:40 PM — Arrival Saint-Honorat Island

Saint-Honorat has belonged to a community of monks almost without interruption since the 5th century, when Saint Honoratus founded a monastery here that became one of the most influential in the Christian world. Car-free and largely covered in pine forest, vineyards and eucalyptus groves, the island feels a world away from the Croisette, just a few nautical miles distant.

3:00 PM — Wine Tasting In the Monastery Vineyards

The guide leads the group to the vineyards cultivated by the monks of Lérins Abbey, who have made wine on the island since the Middle Ages using organic and biodynamic methods. Guests enjoy a wine tasting amid the vines, paired with a lunch of local monastery specialities — cheeses, charcuterie and island produce — served in this exceptional open-air setting. The tasting lasts approximately 40 minutes.

3:40 PM — Guided Visit Lérins Abbey & the Shoreline

Following the tasting, the group continues on foot to discover the island at a gentle pace: the fortified medieval monastery overlooking the sea, the cloister and gardens of the present-day abbey, and the scattering of small ancient chapels dotted along wooded paths around the island. The walk also follows stretches of the rocky shoreline, with sweeping views back towards Cannes and the mainland hills.

5:30 PM — Return Crossing Saint-Honorat to the Port of Cannes

As the afternoon light softens, the group boards the ferry once more for the return crossing to the Port of Cannes, arriving at approximately 6:00 PM.

6:00 PM — Return Back to Hôtel Carlton

Coaches await at the port for the transfer back to the Hôtel Carlton, bringing to a close an afternoon spent on one of the Riviera's most tranquil and unexpected islands — where centuries of monastic tradition, fine wine and natural beauty meet the sea.

THE ITINERARY IN DETAIL

1:00 PM — Departure Hôtel Carlton Cannes

The group boards private minivans at the Carlton for the short, scenic drive west along the coast to Antibes — around 20 minutes, with glimpses of the Baie des Anges along the way.

1:30 PM — Lunch Les Vieux Murs, on the Ramparts

Lunch is served at Les Vieux Murs, a restaurant built into the 16th-century ramparts of Antibes, with a terrace looking straight out over the Baie des Anges towards Nice and the Alps. Guests enjoy refined Mediterranean cuisine in one of the most scenic settings on the coast, right on the ancient sea walls.

3:00 PM — Picasso Museum Château Grimaldi

The afternoon continues with a guided visit of the Musée Picasso, housed in the Château Grimaldi, a former stronghold of the Grimaldi family perched above the sea. Pablo Picasso used the château as his studio in 1946, and the museum today holds one of the finest collections of his work, alongside pieces by Léger, Miró and Nicolas de Staël — all in a building that is itself one of the oldest and most beautifully sited on the Riviera.

4:00 PM — Ramparts & Old Town Vieil Antibes

Leaving the museum, the guide leads the group along the ramparts walk skirting the sea, then into the narrow, flower-filled lanes of the old town — Vieil Antibes — one of the best-preserved fortified towns on the French coast, with its Romanesque cathedral, tucked-away squares and the lively Marché Provençal, the covered market famous for its Provençal produce and flowers.

4:15 PM — Port Vauban The Historic Harbour

The walk continues to Port Vauban, one of the oldest and largest marinas in Europe, sheltered by Fort Carré. Its quays are lined with vessels ranging from traditional fishing boats to some of the world's most impressive superyachts — a striking contrast that sums up Antibes' character, part historic fishing port, part Riviera glamour.

4:30 PM — Town Centre Time for Shopping

Guests who wish to shop are invited to continue into the town centre, where pedestrian streets around Rue de la République and Rue James Close offer a mix of independent boutiques, art galleries and local Provençal shops.

4:50 PM — Return Back to Hôtel Carlton

The group re-boards the minivans for the return drive to the Hôtel Carlton — concluding an afternoon that paired world-class art with the timeless charm of a Provençal fortified town by the sea.

3:20 PM — Vieux Port Cannes' Historic Harbour

3:35 PM — Le Suquet Place de la Castre & the View over the Lérins Islands

A gentle climb through the narrow, flower-lined streets of Le Suquet — Cannes' oldest quarter — brings the group to the Place de la Castre, at the foot of the 12th-century watchtower and the Château de la Castre. From this hilltop terrace, the panorama sweeps over the rooftops of Cannes, the Bay, and out to the Îles de Lérins, the two pine-covered islands (Sainte-Marguerite and Saint-Honorat) just offshore — one of the most rewarding views on the entire coast.

3:55 PM — Forville Market & Rue Meynadier The Flavours and Life of Cannes

Descending from Le Suquet, the walk passes the Marché Forville, Cannes' beloved covered market and the true pantry of the city's chefs, brimming with Provençal produce, cheeses, flowers and local specialities.
