

KIONA-BENTON CITY
SCHOOL DISTRICT

Bio:

Pete Peterson is currently the Superintendent at Kiona-Benton City School District in rural Eastern Washington. Ki-Be serves over 1,300 students with over 80% considered Low-Income and over 60% identify as Hispanic and Latino.

Pete graduated with a BA in Social Science Education from Eastern Washington University. in 1994 and began his career teaching English at Pasco High School in 1996. He received a MA in Educational Leadership and Principal's Certification from WSU-Tri-Cities in 2001, then received his Superintendent Certification from WSU's "Leaders for Tomorrow's Schools" Program in 2015, and became Superintendent in Kiona-Benton City School District in 2018.

Pete currently serves on the WSU-Tri-Cities College of Education Advisory Board, the Washington Association of School Administrators State Board of Directors, the Benton/Franklin Counties Juvenile Justice Advisory Board, and the Waste Management Educator's Council.