

COMMUNICATION POWER FOR LEADERS

WITH SKIP WEISMAN

Trust Assessment Scorecard

Instructions: For each statement think about your relationship with the other person and if you believe that statement to be true for how that other person consistently presents themselves. If it's high and can't be any better they would rate a 10, and if they never or rarely present themselves in that manner, they would rate 1. Circle the # in each statement's scorecard and add the total of the five statement scores at the bottom of the page.

Name of Person _____

1) I believe this person has my (or organization, team, company, etc.) best interest in mind when we communicate, interact and engage.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Never True) (Always True)

2) I believe this person communicates, acts, and behaves with the best of intentions and there is positive intent behind their actions.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Never True) (Always True)

3) I believe this person can do what they tell me they are going to do.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Never True) (Always True)

4) I believe this person will do what they tell me they are going to do.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Never True) (Always True)

5) I believe I can go to this person in a time of need and be vulnerable in front of them knowing they will listen, in a non-judgmental, empathic, compassionate and confidential manner, and will only give advice if it is requested.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Never True) (Always True)

Total Beginning Trust Score: _____

www.WorkplaceCommunicationExpert.com

P.O. Box 5094 – Poughkeepsie, NY 12602
845-463-3838 – Skip@WorkplaceCommunicationExpert.com