Generate by YM360 is designed to help you and your church advance the Kingdom in and through your students. An important aspect of this collaboration is an understanding of agreement regarding various requirements, roles & responsibilities that are or may be a part of your week. As a participant at Generate by YM360 you as a group leader are agreeing to the following:

“I am responsible for all individuals in my group.”

- I understand that my group leaders and I are responsible for all supervision of our students including discipline for the entirety of the camp experience. Any damages on campus due to any actions from my students or adults are the full responsibility of my church and we will be billed accordingly at the time of the incident or as soon as YM360 is notified. I am also responsible for any lost key charges incurred by my group.
- I understand that my group leaders and I are responsible for all counseling and spiritual decisions of my students throughout the week. This includes in Worship, Kick-Start, First Light, Quiet Time, Church Group Time as well as any and all other opportunities throughout your week at Generate camp.
- I understand that my group leaders and I are responsible for all medical needs and decisions related to any and all participants in our group. This includes medical/injury treatment, management of medical release forms, participant medical insurance information, knowledge of participant medical history, management of any medicines at camp, transportation to any medical facility, all communication with a home church, parents or guardians. YM360 will not have any responsibility for the medical needs of your participants while at camp.
- I understand that my group leaders and I are responsible for the departure of any students that are leaving early for any reason. In the event that I have a student leaving camp early, I will communicate that information to the camp office at the earliest possible opportunity. I also understand that there are not pro-rated costs for students that have to leave camp for any reason.
- I understand that my group leaders and I are responsible for abiding by the event guidelines YM360 has set that will be communicated to each participant at Generate camp. This includes dress standards, attendance to any and all gatherings, lights out, guys and girls being in the appropriate rooms, no alcohol, tobacco, drugs, weapons or fireworks and any shared campus guidelines.

“I am responsible for all my group leaders having a background check and affirm that my church has an active child-protection policy.”

- I understand that no legal adult leader will be permitted with my group as a participant at camp without the proper background check being performed by my church.
- I understand that I am responsible for listing all of my adults on the Background Check Verification (BCV) form and submitting with my final paperwork to the YM360 office.

By my signature, I certify and affirm that I have reviewed the outlined requirements, roles and responsibilities and I understand it is my responsibility to inform and educate any of my group leaders as well as any of the participants from my group of these expectations.
