

Blessings promised:

Why did the people choose to keep their covenants despite the danger they faced?

How did their example influence their enemies?