 of the Presbyterian Church of Marshall

Do hereby certify, that on the tenth day of December instant at two o'clock in the afternoon in pursuance of a notice duly given by the Minister of said Church on three successive Sabbaths previous to said day, a meeting was convened in the Court House in the Village of Marshall that being the place where the said Church statedly attend for divine worship for the purpose of electing six Trustees to take the charge of the estate and property belonging to said Church and to transact all affairs relative to the temporalities thereof that by a resolution of the Meeting then and there convened it was ordered that six Trustees be chosen and that the name or title by which the said Trustees and their successors in office shall forever be called and known, shall be "The Presbyterian Society of Marshall," And we do further certify, that the names of the persons elected to serve as Trustees are as follows. Namely: Charles J. Cochran Lansing Kingsbury, William R. M'Call, James M. Parsons, John Dusenbury and Henry K. Clark And that they were divided by Lot in three classes numbered One, Two, and Three as follows namely Lansing Kingsbury and William R. M'Call in the first class, Charles J. Cochran and Henry K. Clark in the second class and James M. Parsons and John Dusenbury in the third class
