Helmed by an already established songwriter in David Gates, Bread explored several different types of pop-rock in the 70s - but somehow it was gates' signature ballads that took soft-rock sadness to epic levels that seemed to hold longer in hearts and in the charts. Make It With YouKochanie, I'm-a Want YouThe Guitar Man!Everything I OwnDiaryAubreyIt Don't Matter to MeSweet SurrenderLost Without Your Love Usually, when you hear Bread songs from the radio, it's supposed to be ironic, like Baby I'm-a Want You in House and Cold Case episodes, or if you're in an Anchorman movie. Everything I Own is only found in serious scenes, however, and not occasionally outliers as Guitar Man appeared in the supernatural episode. Founded in 1967 (Los Angeles, CA)Styles Soft rock, Pop, Adult contemporary, Folk rock, Rock and roll, Hard rock One of the most popular soft-rock costumes of the eralt bridged the gap between british influences of the pop invasion of the late 60s and the sensitive movement of the singer-songwriter of the early 70sLeader David Gates folk-rock influence ballads were disarmingly gentle yet lyrically heartbreakingHelped to define a new Californian soft-rock sound that grew out of the folk and pop area of David Gates (b. December 11, 1940, in Tulsa, OK): vocals, guitar, bass, keyboards, Violin, DrumsJimmy Griffin (born August 10, 1943 in Cincinnati, oh; died January 11, 2005, Franklin, TN): vocals, guitar, keyboards, drumsLarry Knechtel (born August 4, 1940 in Bell, CA; Died August 20, 2009, Yakima, WA): guitar, bass, keyboards, harmonicaKike Botts (December 8, 1944 – December 9, 2005, Burbank, CA): Drums David Gates, nominal leader of Bread, had already played live in various bands for four years when he moved to Los Angeles at 21. There he immediately joined the growing local scene, writing hits (Popsicles and Societes mumsaidów and Saturday's monkeys) and producing as a (Glenn Yarborough in Baby, The Rain Must Fall). He also met famous session sessions known as The Wrecking Crew and released several solo singles, none of which were much more successful. In 1967, he produced a psych-pop group called Pleasure Faire. Faire member Robb Royer suggested to Gates that they form their own group, along with la scene friend and vet Jimmy Griffin, and after being inspired by a passing bread truck, the bread group was born. Initially, the group was heavily emaciates with psych-pop, and all three members (session drummers were used for the first LP) wrote songs in many different styles. But it was a song from their second album, Gates' ballad called Make It With You, which perfectly matched the parameters of the new gentle AM sound, and soared to #1. Another ten singles, all ballads written and sung by Gates, made it into the Top 40. Unfortunately, other Bread members wanted a crack in the single, which led to internal discontent; worse was the fact that Gates made two solo albums in the Bread years. Eventually, the group fell apart after Gates refused to undergo a change in the hit formula. The other three members returned to session work, while Gates scored a hit on his own with the title song for Neil Simon's film The Goodbye Girl. Bread managed to unite twice: once in 1977 for a hit and an album, and most recently in 1996 for a full tour. Griffin, Botts and Knechtel left. Robb Royer (bass, guitar, keyboards, drums, flute) also played with the band until 1971; he was replaced by Wrecking Crew legend Larry Knechtel. Who plays the lead role in Guitar ManGates's high school band in Tulsa once backed Chuck Berry for a concert thereGates also produced early singles by Captain Beefheart in 1966Royer and Griffin also wrote carpenters 1970 hit For All We Know. Botts later toured as a member of Linda Ronstadt and Dan Fogelberg Vocal Group Hall of Fame (2006) Pop Make It With You (1970)Adult Contemporary Baby I'm-a Want You (1 If (1971), Sweet Surrender (1972), The Guitar Man (1977), (2) Pop It Don't Matter to Me (1970), Baby I'm-a Want You (1971), If (1971), Everything I Own (1972), Lost Without Your Love (1977)Adult Contemporary It Don't Matter to Me (1970)), Make It With You (1970), Diary (1972), Everything I Own (1972), Aubrey (1973), Hooked on You (1977), Lost Without Your Love (1977) Pop Baby I'm-a Want You (19 77)972), The Best Of Bread (1973) George's remake of Everything I Own returned to the UK charts in 1987 after the devastation of the breakup of his band Culture Club-guy actor Telly Savalas also inexplicably had a #1 UK hit with the cover of Bread , in this case, the spoken word take on If from 1975 The only other bread cover charts is Ralfi Pagan's 1971 R&A; B hit with Make You, though Cake got some airplay from their 2004 version of Guitar Man. David Gates has a cameo playing the piano in the classic 1971 car chase drama Vanishing Point, though Gates and Knechtel both star as each other in the 1978 episode of Hardy Boys Mysteries. Jazz multi-instrumentalist Richard Carpenter and his sister, drummer and singer Karen, were kings of Sunshine pop, this eternally optimistic brand of early 70s pop. But their other songs pointed to more difficult, more painful realities that might have had some effect on the mental disorders that silenced Karen's legendary honeymoon voice at the age of just 33. Most Famous Carpenters Songs: (They Long To Be) Close To You Top of the WorldSuperstarRainy Days and MondaysWe've Only Just StartedMerry Christmas DarlingYesterday Once MoreSingHurting Each OtherFor All We Know Where You Can it was to hear them Close to You and Top of the World are so characteristic of the Have a Nice Day era – and still such amazing examples of innocence in the first blush of love – that you can never tell where they will appear with varying degrees of sincerity : the first can be found in House of Lies, The Simpsons, and the plot point of sorts in the classic sports comedy film The Best of Times, and the second in Friends and Shrek Forever After. This irony sometimes extends to a song like Sing (That '70s Show) or We've Only Just Started (borat movie!). Founded in 1968 (New Haven, CT) Styles Pop, Sunshine Pop, Soft-rock, Pop-country Members: Karen Carpenter (born March 2, 1950, New Haven, CT; d. February 4, 1983, Downey, CA): vocals, drumsRichard Carpenter (born October 15, 1946, New Haven, CT): piano, backing vocals Claims to fame: The most successful soft-rock act of the seventiesBrought a new level of romantic sophistication to the sun popTheir lush arrangements and tight songcraft made them one of the more tasteful artists of their eraKaren Carpenter's voice is recognized as one of the greatest instruments Vocalist in pop historyKaren was also one of the first rock drummers to call himself early years natural musician, Richard Carpenter mastered the piano at a young age, playing around his hometown of New Haven in a jazz trio and studying the instrument further at Yale, still only 15. The Carpenter family soon moved to Downey, California, and Richard joined a local marching band. Although his sister Karen had no formal training, she also joined the band to escape Phys Ed – and found herself natural on drums. Soon they both formed the Richard Carpenter Jazz Trio with friend Wes Jacobs. After winning the Battle of the Bands competition at the Hollywood Bowl, RCA signed them. Success This dream was short-lived, however, and the label quickly abandoned the trio, which then turned into a sextet called After a few Fake launches, a poppier demo featuring Karen's voice found its way to Herb Alpert of A&M, who signed them immediately. The Ballad of Ticket to Ride beales made some progress in the charts, but a cover of Bacharach/David (They Long to Be) Close to You put them at the top the following year. Their next single comes from an unlikely source: We've Only Just Begun was written by Paul Williams to be included in a television commercial starting a california bank. In later years, the duo ruled the charts in the early 1970s with hits written by Williams, Leon Russell and Richard himself, working with former Spectrum member John Bettis. In the middle of the decade, however, Richard became addicted to drugs, and Karen began to develop anorexia resulting from weight problems she had in her teens. By the time Richard got his problem under control, the disco frenzy was in full disseach: In 1981, the duo made a small comeback with the hit Touch Me When We're Dancing, but before they could continue, Karen died in 1983 from a cardiac arrest caused by her anorexia. Other carpenters entertaining facts and trivia: Karen originally played glockenspiel before switching to drums, starting with chopsticks on a bar stoolDropal worked at Disneyland before their big break, and appeared in commercials for ford maverick The group's official name is simply Carpenters, without The, which Richard thinks made their sound less hipAlpert signed Carpenters, because Karen's voice reminded him of Patti PageJohn Lennon was a big fan of Karen's voice and their issue of Ticket To Ride Made for RichardNixon at the White House in 1973Family house in Downey, CA, serves as a sanctuary for many fans but is scheduled for demolition Carpenters awards and accolades: GRAMMY Awards (1970, 1971), Hollywood Walk of Fame (6931 Hollywood Boulevard) #1 hitsPop (They Long to Be) Close to You (1970), Merry Christmas Darling (1970) , Top of the World (1973), Please Mr. Postman (1975) Top 10 Hits Pop We've Only Just Started (1970), Superstar (1971), Rainy Days and Mondays (1971), For All We Know (1971), Hurting Each Other (1972), Goodbye to Love (1972), Yesterday Once More (1973), Sing (1973), Only Yesterday (1975) Notable covers of Sonic Youth made honesty, dark, and a noisy tribute pass in Superstar on the 1990s tribute album If I Were a Carpenter, which also featured covers of Sheryl Crow, Crackers and Cranberries; Top of the World has been reinterpreted by everyone from Jerry Vale to Shonen Knife to Stabbing Westward; Close to You, their most covered song, may be the only song ever covered by both Frank Sinatra and Circle Jerks Movies and TV Karen and Richard appeared in episodes of both Della Reese and Bob Hope's short-lived 70s sitcoms, but were ubiquitous each other on the television of earth, earth, no less than four TV promotions (two of them Christmas themed) and a summer replacement program called Make Your Own Kind of Music in 1971
