If you're having trouble, these suggestions will get you started: Focus on the mask. If your guests are warm about wearing full costumes, just have a masked party instead of a full costume relationship. Masks are easy to find or make, and your party will have the necessary mystery with less fuss everywhere. Put on a hat. It's amazing how a hat can type a period or a teon. From Sombreros to motorcycle helmets, hats add authenticity to costumes or make great costumes on their own. Decorate a T-shirt. For an unofficial party, decorate the T-shirts with party themes. Dripping blood, musical notes, Mardi Gras colors and nails from famous people all work as quick costume solutions for the right themed party. Take your costume. A gorilla or a Snow White costume may not be as expensive as you think. Halloween is now the second most popular holiday in the US. That means the costume business is exploding and he's hungry for customers in the off-season. Costumes and other related products are priced competitively online and quality in the $50 price range is usually fair. For about $200, you can buy a Queen of Hearts costume full with petticoat, hoop, choker and crown. For local shopping, costumes are
