

Traditional Gi Folding

When wearing the uniform the right side of the jacket folds in first and ties to the left hip string. Then the left side foldover on the outside and ties to the right hip string. The left panel of the uniform is always on the outside.